Life's a Sack Race

To a sick man. He's hobbled, hampered, handicapped by his sickness. Every little while he has to lay off for a day.

He can't get ahead. Everybody passes him in the struggle for success. If sickness originates in a diseased condition of the stomach (and most sickness does) there's a cure for it. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is not a cure-all, but a medicine specially designed to cure diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures many forms of disease, because many forms of disease originate in a diseased condition of the stomach and digestive and nutritive system.

"I write to tell you of the great benefit I have received from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. C. B. Bird, of Byrnside, Putnam County, West Va. "It cured me of a very bad case of indigestion associated with torpid liver. Before I began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I had no appetite; could not sleep or work but very little. The little that I ate did not agree with me; bowels constipated, and life was a misery to me. I wrote to Dr. Pierce, giving the symptoms, and asked for advice. You advised me to try the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' so I began the use of it, and after taking four bottles I felt so well that I went to work, but soon got worse, so I again began the use of it, and used it about eight weeks longer, when I was permanently cured. I took in all about twelve bottles of the 'Discovery,' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in connection with the 'Discovery.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels in healthy action.

The report was untrue, but the young people are no doubt man and wife by this time. They returned to the home of the groom, where they were married and will reside."

You Look Comical

That's a fact, you certainly do. That little knot of hair on the back of your head! Don't you wish it were larger? Wouldn't you like to have long, rich, heavy hair? Don't forget this song of fifty years, "One thing is certain, Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow." And it always restores color.

If you do not obtain the benefit you desire from use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. He will tell you just the right thing to do. Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

BAD DREAMS

Caused by Coffee.

"I have been a coffee drinker, more or less, ever since I can remember, until a few months ago I became more and more nervous and irritable, and finally I could not sleep at night for I was horribly disturbed by dreams of all sorts and a species of distressing nightmare.

"Finally, after hearing the experience of numbers of friends who had quit coffee and gone to drinking Postum Food Coffee, and learning of the great benefits they had derived I concluded coffee must be the cause of my trouble, so I got some Postum Food Coffee and had it made strictly according to directions.

"I was astonished at the flavor and taste. It entirely took the place of coffee, and to my great satisfaction, I began to sleep peacefully and sweetly. My nerves improved, and I wish I could warn every man, woman and child from the unwholesome drug, ordinary coffee.

"People really do not appreciate or realize what a powerful drug it is and what terrible effect it has on the human system. If they did, hardly a pound of it would be sold. I would never think of going back to coffee again. I would almost as soon think of putting my hand in a fire after I had once been burned.

"A young lady friend of ours, Miss Emily Pierson, had stomach trouble for a long time, and could not get well as long as she used coffee. She finally quit coffee and began the use of Postum Food Coffee and is now perfectly well. Yours for health. Don't publish my name."——Herington, Kan. Name given by Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

The corporation of Yale university has voted to give tuition free to five Filipinos to be chosen by Judge Taft, of the Philippine commission. There is likely to be a government protest against further teaching of the Filipino idea how to shoot.

It is being exploited as a remarkable experience that a Sullivan county man was buried alive for thirty-eight hours. This is distanced several classes by Hon. Web Davis, who has been buried now eight days and yet shows no signs of coming to the surface for air.

Senator Vest, of Missouri, has broken a tense silence with an explanation of democratic defeat. History has merely repeated itself, he says, and there is no cause for democratic discouragement. This is at present comforting, but it is not reassuring. What is wanted is some inducement to history to give fresher sort of performance.

According to the statistical report of the department of education to be filed with the legislature there are in the state 765,004 school children. Of this number 383,308 are white boys, 357,620 white girls, 7,497 colored boys and 7,597 colored girls. The school houses in the state number 10,038, and the average paid male teachers in the township schools is $2.11 per day. The average for females is $1.94 per day. There are 7,208 male teachers employed in the state and 8,409 females, making a total of 15,671. The average length of school days in townships is 134, in towns 153, in cities 180 and in the state at large 152. The total amount paid city and town trustees for managing the school affairs for the last year was $29,471.69.

There is wisdom of a fine-spun sort in President McKinley's feelingly expressed wish to the members of his cabinet that they retain their portfolios through his second administration. It is not at all probable that all of them will find it desirable to do so or that the president expects to retain all of them. Most of the members of the cabinet are giving their services to the country and to the administration at considerable sacrifice of personal interests. The salary of a cabinet officer is not large. Several members of the cabinet, notably Gage, Root and Griggs could command greater salaries in business pursuits than Mr. McKinley receives as president. Cabinet duties entail very arduous responsibilities and doubtless a number of the president's advisors are anxious to retire to private life. But the president has asked them to stay and for the present it may be assumed that they will indicate acceptance. This will relieve the president of a period of vast annoyance and embarrassment between now and his second inauguration. In view of his expressed desire that there shall be no changes in his cabinet politicians will be slow to prod him for recognition in the construction of a new one. Mr. McKinley's invitation to his councillors to remain was no doubt sincere They have borne a large share in the successes of the administration and are in thorough harmony with the president. It is easy to believe the president would regret to lose them. Yet it is not easy to believe he expects them all to continue in office. He has warded off the politicians for a time and such reconstruction of his cabinet as he may know to be necessary he may pursue in peace.

The directors have decided to extend the lighting service to many points not reached at present.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED.

Every Sufferer from Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucus membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long-looked for catarrh cure.

HAAS FIGURES IT

WOULD PLACE ALLEN COUNTY IN EIGHTH DISTRICT,

ADDING WABASH TO TWELFTH

THIS WOULD MAKE BOTH DISTRICTS REPUBLICAN.

THE LAW WOULD NOT PERMIT

SUCH AN ASSIGNMENT OF COUNTIES—ALLEN IS SAFE.

Charles Haas, editor of the Wabash Plaindealer, who apparently is on the inside of proposed political legislation by the general assembly this winter, figures out a way by which Allen county can be placed in a republican district and the republicans gain one congressman in Indiana. Here is Mr. Haas' method:

"Wabash county may, under the new apportionment by the legislature this winter, be thrown into the Twelfth district. The republicans are planning to redistrict the state so that a gain of one in the congressional delegation may be made. The Twelfth district is democratic by anywhere from 500 to 3,000 and by shifting Allen county to the Eighth district and adding Wabash to the Twelfth the Eighth might be made republican, even with Allen's democratic majority, while the Twelfth, with Wabash included, would be republican forever and a day. There is little doubt that Allen's capacity for political evil will be destroyed by the legislature.

"The Eleventh district's enormous republican majority of 5,473 and the loss by the republicans of the Twelfth district, which adjoins, has set the republican politicians to calculating how part of that majority may be used to make the Twelfth safely republican. The republicans now have nine of the thirteen congressmen and it is thought that by placing Allen county in the Eighth district and throwing one or two of the strong republican counties of the Eleventh district into the Twelfth that another republican may be gained, even when the state goes democratic. The legislature will take up the redistricting of the state soon after it meets and the lines of the congressional districts of the northern part of the state are certain to be radically changed."

If this could be done all doubt as to Allen county being in a republican district would be past, inasmuch as Congressman Cromer, of the Eighth district, won by nearly 3,800 plurality on November 6. But the legislature cannot under the law add Allen county to the Eighth without taking from the Eighth some of the counties now constituting it. The Eighth district is already the largest in Indiana, there having been cast for congress more than 5,000 more votes than in the Indianapolis district and an average of more than 10,000 more votes than in the other districts of the state. By adding Allen county to the Eighth the voting population would be larger by 30,000 than the average vote in the other districts of the state. The law provides that counties in a district must be contiguous to each other, consequently with Allen in the Eight, Wells and Adams would be compelled to remain in the Eighth, as both counties are contiguous to Allen. These three counties will give an average democratic majority of 5,500. But the big republican counties of Randolph, Madison and Delaware would overcome this, Jay and Blackford, small counties, being practically a stand-off. With Jay and Blackford out of the Eighth the voting population would still be 20,000 too large and the only course to pursue would be to cut out either Randolph, Madison or Delaware. Randolph and Delaware are overwhelmingly republican, and with either out the district would be democratic. If Madison were taken out the republican plurality in the district, according to the vote cast November 6, would be less than 400, not a safe plurality by any means. Allen's normal majority is in excess of 3,000 and it is probable that the majorities hereafter will reach that figure, so that it is easily seen that Allen county cannot be added to the Eighth district and enough republican counties be left therein to insure a republican congressman. The democrats of Allen county are lucky in the fact that there is not a county adjoining this that gives a certain republican majority in excess of 400. In fact, Huntington and Noble are the only adjoining counties that give a republican majority at all. DeKalb, Whitley, Wells and Adams are all democratic. If Allen county is placed in a reliable republican district it will be because the vote is in excess of what the law requires or the district will present the appearance of a shoestring on the map.

RESIGNATION WAS ACCEPTED

REV. L. L. HENSON WILL GO TO PROVIDENCE.

Touching Evidences of Esteem Were Shown at the Meeting on Wednesday Evening.

The resignation of Rev. L. L. Henson, D. D., as pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, was reluctantly accepted last evening at a largely attended congregational meeting of the church. The vote showed 59 to 33 in favor of acceptance, only a portion of the members voting, and the scene at the conclusion was affecting, many being moved to tears.

Judge Allen Zollars made a brief address in behalf of the congregation, in which he expressed the universal regret that the pastor was about to leave for other fields. He spoke at some length of the things that had been accomplished since Dr. Henson assumed charge and voiced the general appreciation of his efforts toward the upbuilding of the church and the spiritual advancement of those connected with it during his pastorate. Other members of the church made addresses expressive of the universal esteem in which Dr. Henson is held and wishing that success might follow his work in the new field.

Rev. L. L. Henson has been pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle for the past five years, coming here from the Fuller Memorial church at Baltimore, Md., his first charge. Rev. Henson graduated from Clinton college in 1884 with the degree of A. B., and received the degree of A. M. from his alma mater in 1888. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him last June by Franklyn college. Dr. Henson is a man of strong personality, a vigorous expounder of the gospel and an untiring laborer in the interests of Christianity. His ministry in this city has been crowned with great success and during his pastorate here he has received into membership 441 persons. He organized Beaver chapel, a Baptist city mission, and has been active in the various branches of missionary work. Dr. Henson is a member of the international board of the B. Y. P. U. of America; of the state missionary board of the Indiana Baptist convention; of the board of trustees of the aged minister's home at Fenton, Mich., and of the Baptist orphanage of Chicago.

While no definite date has been set, it is probable that the resignation will take effect in December. The executive board of the charge have not yet arranged to hear candidates for the pastorate and it is scarcely probable that any will be heard until after Dr. Henson leaves for his new charge.

The universal esteem in which the popular pastor is held is attested by the following paragraphs:

Baptist Outlook, Indianapolis—Rev. L. L. Henson, D. D., the popular pastor of the First church, Fort Wayne, has received a hearty and unanimous call to the pastorate of the Cranston Street Baptist church, Providence, R. I. We have not learned what his decision is yet, but we are sure we voice the sentiment of all his friends in Indiana when we say it is to be hoped he will remain in the Hoosier state, where he has already accomplished so much for our cause. Mr. Henson has one of the best churches in the state and his services have been recognized in many ways by our denomination in Indiana.

Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati—Rev. L. L. Henson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, Fort Wayne, Ind., has been called by a unanimous vote to the pastorate of the Cranston Street Baptist church, of Providence, R. I., which Rev. Dr. M. H. Bixby recently resigned. Will he go? That does not yet appear. All Indiana and The Journal and Messenger protest.

WOMAN'S KIDNEY TROUBLES

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing this Fatal Woman's Disease.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women.

The following letters will show how marvellously successful it is:

Aug. 6, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am failing very fast,—since January have lost thirty-five or forty pounds. I have a yellow, muddy complexion, feel tired, and have bearing down pains. Menses have not appeared for three months: sometimes I am troubled with a white discharge, and I also have kidney and bladder trouble. . . I have been this way for a long time, and feel so miserable I thought I would write to you, and see if you could do me any good."—MISS EDNA FREDERICK, Troy, Ohio.

Sept. 10, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound according to directions, and can say I have not felt so well for years as I do at present. Before taking your medicine a more miserable person you never saw. I could not eat or sleep, and did not care to talk with any one. I did not enjoy life at all. Now, I feel so well I cannot be grateful enough for what you have done for me. You are surely a woman's friend. Thanking you a thousand times, I remain,

Ever yours
MISS EDNA FREDERICK,
Troy, Ohio.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and cannot praise it enough. I had headaches, leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, and kidney trouble. I also had a pain when standing or walking, and sometimes there seemed to be balls of fire in front of me, so that I could not see for about twenty minutes. Felt as tired in the morning when I got up as if I had had no sleep for two weeks. Had fainting spells, was down-hearted, and would cry."—MRS. BERTHA OPER, Second and Clayton Sts., Chester Pa.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot find language to express the terrible suffering I have had to endure. I had female trouble, also liver, stomach, kidney, and bladder trouble. . . . I tried several doctors, also quite a number of patent medicines, and had despaired of ever getting well. At last I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, thanks to your medicine, I am a well woman. I can not praise your medicine too highly for I know it will do all, and even more, than it is recommended to do I tell every suffering woman about your Vegetable Compound, and urge them to try it and see for themselves what it will do."—MRS. MARY A. HIPLE, No. Manchester, Ind.

$5000 REWARD. We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

PUNY CHILDREN

TOO MANY OF THEM DIE.

Their Little Bodies Unable to Stand the Ordeal of Development.

WE THINK EVERY MOTHER IN THIS TOWN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT VINOL.

It is the Delicious Tonic We Advise for Growing Children.

Is your boy or girl pale and listless? Do they act differently from other children? Do they sleep poorly and eat poorly? Does your boy avoid the sports and games of other boys? Does your girl complain of headache and find her studies a hardship?

If so, you may make up your mind they are growing too fast. They need something to help nature in her great work of furnishing the necessary elements for creating flesh and muscle tissue, bone structure and rich, pure, red blood.

They need a tonic in the full sense of the word and we can tell you what to get.

It is Vinol Wine of Cod-Liver Oil, the great modern reconstructor. Children like it, it is so delicious to the taste, in spite of the fact that it contains a highly concentrated extract of the medicinal principles that are found in cod-liver oil.

But because the vile-smelling and tasting grease has been discarded and all of the other disagreeable features eliminated, the benefits of Vinol are easily understood.

Vinol acts favorably on the stomach, creates an appetite and enables the food that is eaten to do the greatest possible amount of good.

Following is a letter that bears directly on this subject:

"I was all run down and took Vinol. It did me so much good and it was so pleasant to take that I gave it to my children. They were growing fast and needed something in the way of a tonic and I found it to be just the thing for them."—SARAH PICKERING, 1932 Fall River, Mass.

We cordially invite mothers interested in the welfare of their children, as well as any one else needing a sure, safe and delicious tonic, rebuilder and rejuvenator, to call on us. We will gladly tell any one all we know about Vinol and why we so highly endorse it.

Inasmuch as we are always ready and pleased to refund the cost of Vinol to those who don't find it exactly what we claim it to be, it will be seen that we are prepared to substantially endorse our claims for the excellence of this marvelous preparation.

HAPPENINGS IN HOOSIERDOM

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 15.—Recently Benjamin Dake, residing in the northern part of this county, forbid his granddaughter, Miss Carrie Dake, from keeping company with Addison Fields, a young man of the community, since which time they have been meeting secretly at the homes of neighbors. Out of respect for her grandparents the girl refused to elope, but Tuesday night agreed that if her lover would procure the license and a magistrate on the morrow she would marry him, she to be in waiting when he and the magistrate appeared. Fields retired with a happy heart Tuesday night and yesterday morning procured the license and the services of 'Squire Maze, of Fairland, and started for the Dake home.

Miss Dake saw them coming, and leaving the house ostensibly to empty a dishpan, met the pair at the front gate of her home and was made the wife of Addison Fields, who informed her that he would return for her shortly, or after taking the 'squire home. He soon returned, but instead of being met by his bride, he was confronted by Benjamin Dake, who at the muzzle of a shotgun made the young man crawl back in his buggy and leave, while in the house, tied to a bedpost, was the bride of but a few hours.

Fields came to this city, consulted a lawyer and will resort to habeas corpus proceedings to secure his wife, over whom the grandfather stands guard and threatens to kill the first person who attempts to take her from his home. The young woman is the belle of the neighborhood and inherited a nice fortune through the death of her father, she being of legal age.

DOUBLE-HEADER WRECKED.

Marion, Ind., Nov. 15.—An eastbound double-header Panhandle freight train arrived in Marion about 8 o'clock last night and the cars were left standing on a grade at the west edge of the city while the engines passed through the city to a water tank. When the engines started back the freight cars were seen coming down grade, the brakes in some manner having been loosened. The engines were halted before the collision came, but one engine was badly damaged and a freight car loaded with hogs was broken. Several animals were killed. It was five hours before the wreck was cleared away.

DEATH IN THE WATER.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 15.—County Physician Tolbert has received the report of the analysis of water from a well on the Sheets farm, west of this city, from the state chemist, which shows that the water was full of poison. This accounts for the death of three members of the family in quick succession, concerning which there was much speculation.

A CHANCE FOR PARTY SPOILS.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 15.—W. W. Wood, postmaster of this city, who was commissioned four years ago and who served two years under President Harrison, has announced that he will not be a candidate for reappointment. J. M. Crain, as chairman of the district committee, is in line for the office, but two other possible candidates are likely to be sprung—W. H. Bent and John C. Summerland. Horace Murphy, deputy postmaster, is also considering the matter.

HELD FOR CAUSING EXPLOSION.

Hartford City, Ind., Nov. 15.—Homer Butler and Thamer Burden are dead; Robert Julius, Daniel Graham, Fred Hornaday and George Sizemier are injured as the result of the blowing up by dynamite of the Marion Keystone club house at an early hour Tuesday morning. Two members of the club who were recently expelled are under arrest, charged with the deed. They are David Cannon and Albert Milton.

When the explosion occurred Butler and Burden were in a room on the second floor and were hurled across the street, where they were picked up unconscious and taken to a hospital, dying a number of hours later. The members of the club who were on the first floor were not seriously injured.

REV. EDGAR WM. GEIL.

Rev. Edgar William Geil, the evangelist, arrived in the city today and will open the series of union revival services at the First Presbyterian church this evening. Rev. Geil comes from Atlanta, Ga., where he has been holding evangelistic services for the past four weeks. While in that city he preached to audiences of 3,000, and his preaching resulted in the conversion of several hundreds of people. A special feature of the services in this city will be the music, and a choir of the best voices in the city will sing each evening. The choir will be under the personal direction of E. F. Yarnelle. Rev. Geil is an evangelist of wide experience, both in this country and in foreign lands. He has traveled extensively, and has written a book on the Holy Land, which he visited a few years ago. His home is in Doylestown, a suburb of Philadelphia, and he is making an evangelistic tour of the world that will cover a period of five years, three of which will be spent in the United States. The tour is being made under the auspices of an association of eastern gentlemen who are interested in evangelistic work. His stay in this city will entail no expense whatever upon the local churches, his expenses being paid by the eastern gentlemen by whom he has been engaged to make the tour. Services will be held in the First Presbyterian church until Sunday evening, and during next week will be held in the Baptist tabernacle. After the 25th services will probably be held in Princess rink.

A DEAD MAN FOR A DRIVER.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 15.—Sitting upright in his buggy, stone dead, his hands grasping the lines, A. L. Burgan drove from Greentown eight miles to his home near Center, this county, last night. When the horse pulled up at the yard gate it "whinnied" for help and Mrs. Burgan came out and found her husband dead. Burgan died of heart trouble soon after starting on the journey, the horse continuing the trip with the corpse for a driver.

AN UNEXPECTED WEDDING.

Peru, Ind., Nov. 15.—The marriage of A. N. Dukes, of this city, and Miss Mame Thompson, of Ypsilanti, Mich., at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, at the home of the bride, created genuine surprise, especially among intimate friends of Mr. Dukes. Rev. Harry Nyce, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, this city, officiated. Mr. Dukes is one of the leading capitalists of northern Indiana, general manager of the Indiana Manufacturing company, this city, active in the promotion of suburban additions, interested in all large enterprises, one-third owner of the old Wabash and Erie canal bed, from Fort Wayne to Lafayette, Ind., and widely known. Miss Thompson is a niece of Mr. Dukes, by his first wife, standing high in the community of her home, and for some time residing at the home of Mr. Dukes. Mr. Dukes is 66 and the bride 28.

HE USED CHLOROFORM.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 15.—Walter Davis, a teamster, was aroused between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning by some one near his bed, and he detected the odor of chloroform. He threw out his hand and struck a man, and, with his wife, he leaped from his bed and caught the fellow, whom he locked in a room until the police arrived. The burglar proved to be James Dennis, colored. Mr. Davis first charged that the purpose was to burglarize the house, but as money on the dresser was left untouched, he now alleges that Dennis had criminal designs on Mrs. Davis. The accused is a porter in a barber shop. He denies that he contemplated crime of any sort, but claims that he wandered into the house while asleep. The charge of attempted criminal assault will be preferred against him.

HUNTING FOR TREASURES.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15.—John Pleashaway, chief of the Pottawottomi tribe of Indians, remained here after his tribe went away, and died twenty-five years ago. He was reputed to have buried his money. He left two daughters, Lizzie and Julia, and these, on the advice of a clairvoyant, came back here one week ago and encamped on the farm once owned by their father, locating on the bank of the river, on the land now owned by ex-State Senator D. E. Leeper. For several days these women, with the assistance of a laborer, dug extensively over the old farm, the clairvoyant declaring that there was a pot of gold and silver, as well as some valuable papers, buried there. The search was unsuccessful, and the Indian women have now broken camp and gone their way.

FATAL GAS EXPLOSION.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—A natural gas explosion at No. 1010 Carson street, South Side, at 8:30 o'clock today wrecked the building and seriously injured three persons, one fatally. The explosion was immediately followed by fire, which almost totally consumed the building. The injured are: Joseph Dobson, frightfully burned, will die; Mrs. Annie Dobson, his wife, painfully burned about the head and face, will recover; August Burchert, face and hands badly burned, not dangerous. It is thought that the gas accumulated in the house from a leak during the night. The loss on the house was $3,000.

FEASTED ON HUMAN FLESH

TALE OF CANNIBALISM FROM THE SOUTH SEAS.

Natives of the Savage Islands Kill and Eat a Trading Agent—A Slaughter of Natives.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—The schooner Mascotte, which has arrived here from the South Seas, brings a tale of cannibalism and the massacre of blacks on the Savage Islands. For the past two years the Mascotte has been trading between the Solomon Islands, New Guinea, and New Ireland. Its deck, rails and sails bear the marks of cannibals' spears and bullets.

The schooner arrived at Komali, in the Admiralty group, just after the murder of Herman Matzke, the trading agent there. This was on August 29. Captain Maccoan and a boat's crew went ashore and found the Copra house had been looted and the trader's home was a wreck. In the yard of the latter a big pot was still sizzling over the dying embers of a fire and in the pot were found some of the bones of the trader.

The cannibals had not gone far. They had found in the agent's house fifteen guns, and with these they suddenly appeared and opened fire on Captain Maccoan and his crew. A hasty retreat was made to the schooner. The bullets from the islanders riddled the sails and the foresail. Captain Maccoan brought into play a small gun and its noise, more than effectiveness, scared the cannibals off.

The Mascotte, which is an auxiliary schooner, in the Carolines, notified the officers of the German sloop of war, Zeadler, of the murder.

Both schooner and warship returned to Komali and the native villages were shelled. Eighty villages were destroyed by fire, sixteen natives were killed and twenty were taken prisoners. In June the Mascotte put into Matty Island, in the Solomon Groupe, and two traders went ashore with the supercargo. A great crowd of natives, scenting a big feast, made for them and filled the air with spears. Captain Caccoan and his men killed four of the cannibals with rifles. The rest took to the woods.

DIVORCES BARRED

EPISCOPALIAN LAW IS TO BE REVISED.

NEW CANONS ARE ADOPTED

RADICAL ACTION URGED BY SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

NO REMARRIAGE IN CHURCH

CHANGES TO BE SUBMITTED TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

New York, Nov. 15.—Episcopalian authorities have taken preliminary steps to forbid rectors of that faith from performing the ceremony of marriage when either of the contracting parties is a divorcee. Episcopalians who have been divorced and remarry are to be excommunicated by the church save when the person so remarrying is the innocent party to a divorce secured on the grounds of adultery. Such is the radical action proposed by the special committee appointed at the last general assembly of the Protestant Episcopal church, which yesterday afternoon unanimously adopted the following canons on the remarrying of divorced persons:

"Canon 2. No minister shall solemnize a marriage between any two persons unless, nor until by inquiring, he shall have satisfied himself that neither person has been, or is the husband or the wife of any other person then living, unless the former marriage was annulled by decree of some civil court of competent jurisdiction for cause existing before such former marriage.

"Canon 3. No person divorced for cause arising after marriage, and marrying again during the lifetime of the other party to the divorce, shall be admitted to baptism or confirmation or received to the holy communion except when penitent and separated from the other party to the subsequent marriage, or when penitent and in immediate danger of death, but this canon shall not apply to the divorce for the cause of adultery."

RADICAL REVISION.

Thus ministers are positively forbidden from again uniting in matrimony either the guilty or the innocent party to a divorce while the former wife or husband is living.

By this action the Protestant Episcopal church practically takes its place beside the Roman Catholic church in opposition to divorce. Heretofore Episcopal clergymen have used their discretion about remarrying the defendants in divorce cases. Bishop Potter has favored the existing liberal laws of the church relating to divorce, while Bishop Doane, of Albany, has led the fight for a radical revision of the divorce canon.

The subject has been agitated for years in the church, and ministers have arrayed themselves in two camps, one for, the other against, revision. Recent divorce scandals in high life are said to have made clear the duty of the church in the matter. Ministers high in authority said yesterday that the action of the special committee will undoubtedly be indorsed by the Protestant Episcopal church at the next general convention, and that the church will do its part to check the increasing disregard for the sanctity of the marriage relation.

THREATEN EXCOMMUNICATION.

While the proposed canon does not ignore the right of court authority to grant divorces, it prohibits remarriage in the Episcopal church, and provides a method of excommunication for those who go through a civil rite or marry in another church. No provision is made for a special dispensation such as may be obtained in the Catholic church, and in this respect the position taken is more radical than that of the church of Rome. Of the eleven members of the committee nine were present. Besides Dr. Dix there were Rev. Dr. Eugene A. Hoffman, dean of the general theological seminary of this city; Rev. Dr. J. H. Eccleston, of Baltimore; Rev. Dr. John Fulton, of Philadelphia; Rev. Dr. Mann, of St. Louis; Francis L. Stetson, of New York; Charles H. Stanley, of Washington, D. C.; Judge E. G. Bradford, of Wilmington, Del., and Francis A. Lewis, of Philadelphia. Mr. Lewis acted as secretary.

The committee was in session all day. It had previously considered the divorce canvass of the church at sessions in 1899 and at a meeting in this city on February 14 last. After a full discussion of the subject the canons were adopted.

CELEBRATING A GRAB.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—The Russian newspapers are jubilantly celebrating the fortieth anniversary of the treaty of Pekin, by which Russia acquired an immense amount of territory.

The Novoe Vremya, however, unfavorably compares Russian diplomacy then with European diplomacy now, and says that it is authorized to state emphatically that an effort will be made to press a campaign for a separate place by Russia in the negotiations with China. This is not, however, understood as representing the government's views.

MADE WIFE AMID SPLENDOR

MISS MORGAN IS WED TO HERBERT L. SATTERLEE.

St. George's Church a Scene of Floral Beauty—Bride Is Given Rich Gifts.

New York, Nov. 15.—Miss Louise Pierpont Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, was married at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in St. George's church, Sturtevant Square, to Herbert Livingston Satterlee, a lawyer, of this city.

The invitations for the ceremony numbered 2,500, much beyond the seating capacity of the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Rainesford, rector of St. George's. The service was fully choral. The musical program was opened half an hour before the ceremony with Meyerbeer's coronation march, and included the "Moorish Serenade," by Jonas; Jensens' "Bridal Song," selections from "Mignon," the march from "Tannhauser," and selections from "Romeo and Juliet." As the bridal procession entered the church the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was sung and played.

The bride, who was accompanied by her father, wore a superb wedding gown of white peau de soie, almost entirely covered with exquisite point d'Alencon.

The veil was of tulle, and the bouquet was of white orchids, lilies of the valley and white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ann Tracey Morgan, the bride's sister; Miss Caroline Morgan, Miss Ursula Morgan and Miss Frances Street Happin, her cousins; Miss Marion Satterlee, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss May Sturgess.

The floral decorations in the church and house were of an unusually elaborate character. The chancel was fully decorated with palms and white roses. Clusters of pinks and white roses decorated each pew end.

The Morgan residence, where the reception was held, was also handsomely decorated with a profusion of roses, chrysanthemums and palms.

The couple received in the drawing room, standing in front of a mass of flowers. A buffet luncheon was served under a large temporary structure erected in the yard adjoining the house.

The bride received from her father a superb tiara and collar of diamonds and a brooch of marquese diamonds set in treface design, and, it is said, Mr. Morgan has set aside for her bonds of great value.

ROBBED NEW YORK LIFE.

London, Nov. 15.—Edwin Barnes, a clerk, was remanded in the Bow street police court today on the charge of embezzling £1,489 belonging to the New York Life Insurance company.

HARMLESS RIOT AT TAMPA

CIGARSMAKERS' TROUBLE IS TO BLAME.

Rival Unions of Americans and Spaniards Cause a Hot Use of Firearms.

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 15—A miniature riot broke out today at the gates of the cigar factory of Gonzales, Mora & Co. Several hundred shots were fired. No one was injured and the mob was dispersed by the police. For several days trouble has been brewing between the members of the International Cigarmakers union and the Spanish union known as Resistancia. Members of the International union have quit work in a number of factories, throwing about 2,000 persons out of employment. The Spanish union is apparently not in sympathy with the movement and about 500 of its members continued at work in the Gonzales factory.

Today the Internationals marched up and demanded that these men come out. They were warned off the premises. An International man tried to push his way through the gates and was fired upon by the Italian guard. A volley was fired in reply from the street. The front and sides of the building were riddled. Those inside fired blindly through the windows. No one was hit, however. The police soon arrived and dispersed the crowd. All factories closed at noon, and to prevent further trouble 100 extra police and a squad of deputy sheriffs were sworn in.

THE REIFFS AGAIN RIDING.

London, Nov. 15.—The Racing Calendar, this afternoon, announces that the stewards of the jockey club adjourned without reaching a decision in the case of Wishard, the trainer, and Lester Reiff, the jockey. In the meanwhile, the fact that the latter is riding today indicates the correctness of The Associated Press forecast of Nov. 14, that Lord Durham's charges of "pulling" Richard Croker's The Scotchmann II. at Doncaster would not be sustained. Both the Reiffs were much in evidence at the derby November meeting today. In the race for the Drakelow selling plate, of 250 sovereigns for all ages, Lester Reiff had the mount on G. Cottrill's Orris Root, the winner of the event. He also rode Sheernus, which finished first in the race for the Elvaston Castle selling plate. The race for the Doveridge stakes of five sovereigns each starer, with 150 sovereigns added, was won by Lord Harewood's Nightshade, ridden by Johnnie Reiff.

ASHBURTON LIBRARY SOLD.

London, Nov. 15.—The sale of the library of Lord Ashburton, at Sotheby's, yesterday and today, drew a number of American buyers. The library was largely collected by the first Baron Ashburton, when he was ambassador of Great Britain at Washington. Denton's brief description of New York, formerly the New Netherlands, unbound, of thirty-one pages, dated 1670, sold for £400 to a dealer representing a New York buyer. The same volume was sold at the Barlow sale in New York for £105. A similar pamphlet, unbound, twenty-two pages, "Virginia's Cure, being an Advisive Narrative of the Church's Unhappiness," went to the same purchaser for £76. Dumont's memorial Mss., relating to the sale of Louisiana, sold for £116.

NATIONAL GRANGE MEETS.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, transacted but little business at today's session, which occupied about an hour and a half. It was decided to confer the sixth and seventh degrees of the order tomorrow evening. There will be upward of 100 recipients of these degrees, the highest given by the Grange. About 250 of the delegates called in a body this forenoon at the white house, where they were received by President McKinley.

MR. JEFFERSON LECTURES.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 15.—Joseph Jefferson lectured on "The Drama" this afternoon in Alexander hall before fifteen hundred students and townspeople. President Patton introduced the lecturer. Mr. Jefferson answered a number of questions on the drama presented by the students. Ex-President Cleveland accompanied Mr. Jefferson to the hall and occupied a seat on the rostrum.

COURT NEWS.

The case of Wells vs. Wells has been dismissed in the superior court.

Emma Bessert has filed an affidavit in Justice Huser's court charging her ex-husband, Gustave Bessert, with provoke.

Nina Darling and Bessie Holsworth were fined $1.00 and costs each for drunkenness by Justice Huser. The girls were participants in the drunken escapade with several Garrett young men three weeks ago.

Charles Helems and Jacob Marquardt were fined $1.00 and costs by Justice France for harboring dogs and failing to list them for taxation.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. Dr. Beattie arrived in the city yesterday after a three weeks' visit in Philadelphia.

The A. C. L. orchestra and choral society will meet at their office in the Ninde block Friday evening after school. Boys and girls who play the mandolin are urgently requested to be present.

The R. C. F. club will celebrate its third anniversary this evening at the club rooms on Swinney avenue. J. Leininger, of Ohio, will deliver an address to the club. A full orchestra will be in attendance.

The members of the Strife club royally entertained their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammett, last evening at progressive hearts. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a delicious three-course supper was served. Prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Koeneman and Miss Mame Larch, and the consolations were given to Gust Harber and Miss Emma Federspiel. Each guest was presented with a souvenir of the occasion in the shape of a red and pink silk ribbon, to which was fastened a silver heart. It was the occasion of the first gathering of the club.

SHERMAN WILL PROBATED.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 15.—The will of the late John Sherman was admitted to probate today in Judge Brinkerhoff's court. Col. Myron M. Parker, of Washington, D. C., and Congressman Kerr, of Mansfield, were made executors. No bond was required, the will having requested that no bond be asked. The probate judge stated that he had received no intimation that there would be any contest. Appraisers will be appointed later.

TWO BIG SUITS FILED.

Colorado Springs, Col., Nov. 15.—Two additional suits for $100,000 each have been filed in the district court here against Sam Strong, the well known Cripple Creek mine owner, by William Lennox and others and the Strong Gold Mining Co. The complaints allege that Strong caused the explosion which destroyed the buildings on the Strong mines on May 24, 1894, thereby greatly injuring the plaintiffs.

CONSUL MOSELEY DEAD.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The state department has been informed that R. A. Moseley, jr., consul general of the United States at Singapore, died yesterday at Yokohoma, Japan. He was granted leave of absence by the department some weeks ago upon representations that his health demanded a change of climate. Mr. Moseley was appointed to his post Jan. 7, 1899, from Alabama.

CONSOLATION FOR YERKES.

Washington, Nov. 15.—John W. Yerkes, late republican candidate for governor of Kentucky, and who recently resigned his position as collector of internal revenue, called on the commissioner of internal revenue today. He says he has abandoned all idea of contesting Governor Beckham's election. He probably will be reappointed to his old position.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Wheat opened easy and dull. The short interest was rather large, but made no extensive attempt to recover. December opened ⅛c lower at 72¼c to 72⅛c, touched 72⅜c and reacted to 71⅝c. On the appearance of a cash demand December rallied sharply to 72⅝c. Local receipts were 52 cars, 10 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 359 cars, against 426 last week and 766 a year ago.

The opening of more mills at Minneapolis helped the market later. December advanced to 72⅜c and closed firm, ½c higher at 72½@72⅜c.

Corn was steady. The opening was a shade lower, December at 35¾c to 35⅞c. Country offerings were small, but receipts, 344 cars, were 24 cars over the estimate.

The close was firm, December a shade up at 35⅞@36c.

In oats there was only a small local trade. December opened a shade lower at 21⅛@22c and held steady. Receipts were 106 cars.

With hog receipts 7,000 head under the estimate the provisions market opened strong. January pork opened 12c higher at $11.65, touched $11.70 and later reacted to $11.62½. January lard opened 2½@5c up at $6.85@6.87½ and sold to $6.90, and January ribs 5@10c higher at $6.20@6.25, steadying early at $6.22½.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Nov., 72⅜c; Dec., 73½@72⅝c; Jan., 73⅜c.

Corn—Nov., 39⅛c; Dec., 35⅞@36c; Jan., 35⅜c; May, 36⅞c.

Oats—Nov., 21⅞c; Dec., 22c; May, 24½c.

Pork—Nov., $10.65; Jan., $11.82½; May, $11.85.

Lard—Nov., $7.20; Dec., $7.05; Jan., $6.97½; May, $7.00.

Ribs—Nov., $7.20; Jan., $6.35; May, $6.37½.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.77; Cash S. W., $1.76; Nov., $1.75; Dec., $1.73, May, $1.74.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Cattle—Receipts, 9,000; market generally strong and active. Good to prime steers, $5.35@5.90; poor to medium, $4.35@5.30; stockers and feeders, $2.50@4.20; cows, $2.50@4.25; heifers, $2.75@4.75; canners, $1.25@2.40; bulls, $2.25@4.40; calves, $4.00 5.85; Texas fed steers, $4.00@5.00; Texas grass steers, $3.30@4.10; Texas bulls, $2.50@3.35.

Hogs—Receipts today, 33,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 2,716. Market 10@15c higher and active; top, $505. Mixed and butchers, $4.70@5.05; good to choice heavy, $4.80@5.05; rough heavy, $4.65@4.75; light, $4.70@5.05; bulk of sales, $4.85@4.95.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 15.—The level of price at the opening was generally higher and the points of special strength were about the same as those of yesterday. Metropolitan Street Railway rose 3 points, the Northern Pacific 1 and 1¼ respectively on the common and preferred, and Baltimore and Ohio 1¾. There was heavy buying of Pennsylvania at a fractional advance. Only a few stocks showed slight losses.

But little interest was manifested in railroad stocks during the early trading, outside of the trunk line group, which advanced, except Baltimore and Ohio, which reacted. An active demand for the steel stocks caused an average rise of a point, and Leather and the Tobaccos rose strongly. Metropolitan Street Railway lost half of its initial gain, but New Jersey Central was pushed up to 145. Profit-taking in Sugar, Baltimore and Ohio, Northern Pacific and the metal stocks made the trading uncertain until 11 o'clock, when the tendency was generally downwards.

An advance of 1@1⅜ in Canada Southern and C., C., C. & St. L. did not stimulate the market, but when Brooklyn Transit was lifted 1½ the list became rather more active and higher. Some good gains were made in spots. General Electric rose 3 and New Jersey Central 4¼. American Linseed Oil preferred recovered 3½ of yesterday's loss.

Bonds were quiet and firm.

Charles Behm, residing on Thomas street, sustained a bad fall on the slippery sidewalk near the Gay street bridge today and sustained a dislocated shoulder. Dr. Morgan attended him.

BROTHERHOODS WANT PEACE WITH SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

BIG LIVE STOCK MOVEMENT

OVER 125 CAR LOADS IN ONE DAY ON PANHANDLE.

A NUMBER OF UNFORTUNATES

FOUR PENNSYLVANIA MEN HAVE EYES INJURED.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—E. E. Clark, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. G. Lee, of Kansas City, first vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, have arrived here. They will try to straighten out the trouble existing between the Southern Pacific company and the local lodges of their respective orders. A conference probably will be held today.

HE BOUGHT THE APPLES.

Messrs. Frank Sarver, John T. Leach and Charles E. Gordon, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, are feasting upon Northern Spy and Ben Davis apples nowadays. Yesterday a bushel of the finest fruit was left at the office of the shop in payment of an election bet, the loser being Conrad Rodenbeck, janitor at the establishment, who believed that Colonel Bryan would be elected.

REDUCED RATES FOR MEETINGS.

All roads east of the Mississippi river have agreed to sell tickets at reduced rates for the following gatherings: Illinois State Federation of Labor convention, Kewanee, Ill., November 20-24; Grain Dealers' National association, Indianapolis, Ind., November 20-21; Fanciers' association, Indianapolis, Ind., December 12-15. The following applications have been declined: Indiana State Federation of Women's clubs, South Bend, Ind., November 15-17, arrangements not completed by applicant; Inter-State convention of southern cotton growers, Macon, Ga., November 20, account of limited number likely to attend from Central Passenger association territory.

SCRAP IRON GOES UP.

Recent advances in the price of steel and iron at the mills has been followed by a rise in the price of the "scrap" article all over the country. Old steel which brought $12 per ton at the Bass shops is today worth $13 per ton. This advance will very materially affect the earnings of manufacturing establishments which have not foreseen the rise and made its contracts accordingly. The scrap steel bought at the Bass works is manufactured into car axles.

RETURNED TO OLD PLACE.

Herman A. Miller, a blacksmith who came here last June from Woodburn to work in the Pittsburg shops, has resigned his position in that establishment. He will return to Woodburn and re-open his old shop. Mr. Miller is a very pleasant gentleman and the employes in the 'smith shop would like to have him remain there.

FORMERLY ON NICKEL PLATE.

Mr. T. B. Hindel, whose appointment to the foremanship of the Wabash shops and round house at Peru was exclusively mentioned Tuesday by The Sentinel, is well known to the Nickel Plate enginemen and trainmen, who entertain for him a very high regard. Eight years ago Mr. Hindel was master mechanic of the Stony Island shops and paid regular monthly visits to this city. The news of his appointment to the Peru position was a surprise to the Nickel Plate men and created considerable comment. Mr. Hindel left the Nickel Plate to take a position on a western road.

COULDN'T PASS EXAMINATION.

Mr. Kirkland, Pennsylvania freight agent at this point, denies in part a very disquieting rumor that has been quite extensively circulated throughout the city for the past week. It was reported that the company was making a big reduction in its force of workmen at the transfer house and that twenty men were dismissed there last week. Mr. Kirkland says that out of a total of 130 men employed twelve were discharged last Saturday because they failed to pass the physical examination. Their places were immediately filled by other men and the number of truckmen at the warehouse is as great today as at any time since the addition was erected and the transfer system established. Like some other railway companies, the Pennsylvania company requires from all new employes a rigid examination and those found deficient in a physical way are not retained. It is supposed that the examination will be made before the newcomer begins work, but owing to the urgent demand for laborers last summer and fall this rule was not observed. Men were given employment with the understanding that the permanency of their jobs would depend upon the result of the physical examination they would be subject to later. This was the case with the twelve men dismissed from the service last week, Mr. Kirkland says. They did not come up to the physical standard and, of course, could not remain in the employ of the company. Unfortunately the incident was greatly exaggerated and given wide circulation, creating uneasiness in the minds of other laborers, lest they, too, should lose their positions. The labor situation in Fort Wayne is bettter today than it was during any previous winter of the decade and there is no reason to believe that it will not continue for several months at least.

FOUR OF A KIND.

Four Pittsburg employes had their eyes injured yesterday and each is off duty pending treatment to the optics. Engineer George Miller got a hot cinder in his eye and so deeply was it imbedded in the ball that he had to call upon an oculist to cut it out. Machinists M. J. Lee and Ed E. Tierney, of the machine shop, were each struck in the eye with pieces of metal, and a chipping of steel got into one of the eyes of C. Gepfert, of the boiler shop. All of these unfortunates were treated by Dr. R. Parks White.

HEAVY EAST-BOUND TRAFFIC.

The railway officials say that everything indicates that the live stock and dressed meat traffic for some months to come will be unusually heavy, as will the grain and flour traffic, and east-bound shipments of hay, poultry and other products bid fair to be the heaviest ever known. In fact, it is said that now the live stock and dressed meat traffic is the heaviest in twenty years, says the Indianapolis Journal. On Sunday the Panhandle turned over to the Pennsylvania at Pittsburg 127 carloads of live stock. On one train there were thirty-one cars, containing over seven hundred cattle. There was one train made up of poultry, hogs and sheep. These trans are run at an average speed of thirty miles an hour. The deliveries of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, as well as the Panhandle, were very heavy. The Pennsylvania lines, however, are not doing it all, as the live stock traffic of the Big Four is now the heaviest in many months. In fact, the Big Four is maintaining its enviable record as to volume of live stock and dressed meats traffic and the speed of its trains.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

J. C. Grable, yard engineer of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of sickness.

The electric works today sent a forty-light arc machine to West Hammond, Ill.

Luke Otten, of the Pennsylvania offices, has returned from Pittsburg, where he went last Monday.

John Fratis, machinist at the Wabash shops, is sick and this morning he was sent to the company's hospital at Peru.

Frank Krahn, of the electric works, who had a hand injured yesterday, is getting along nicely and will entirely recover from the injury.

John T. Leach, assistant foreman of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is not at his usual post of duty today, on account of the sickness of his wife.

Fred Garver, of the Wabash machine shop, will be off duty a few days. Yesterday a car wheel rolled against him, badly bruising one of his legs.

Conductor F. I. Stump and his crew will go to Cloverdale, Ohio, tomorrow to be tried for putting a man off a Findlay train after he had refused to pay fare.

Western railroads have refused the request of New York wholesalers to reduce rates during February and March to enable merchants to buy in New York city.

In the year ending June 30 there were four railway mail clerks killed and 144 injured—fifty-seven seriously. In the preceding year six clerks were killed and 212 injured.

Eight handsomely finished and vestibuled passenger cars, bearing the words "Atlantic Coast Line," formed a part of an east-bound Pittsburg train this morning. The cars were just out of the shop.

Fred Keifhaber, a winder at the electric works, was injured this morning by a heavy coil former dropping upon his foot and bruising the member. He will be unable to work for a few days.

A lull in freight traffic affords opportunity for leave of absence from the road service and a number of Nickel Plate employes have taken advantage of it. Some are hunting, others visiting in neighboring towns and some are looking after some private business. On the absentee list today are Engineers J. E. Lindsey, George Dunann, Daniel Grubb, James Quinn and John Cook and Firemen Herb Minser and C. Jerome.

After a brief lay off Brakeman R. Ewing has resumed work on the Nickel Plate.

L. B. Tibbets, W. C. Ropa and Henry Beckness, Pittsburg shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Fireman Geary Weissell, who was sick a few days, resumed work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Master Mechanic G. S. McKee is making a trip over the Buffalo division of the Wabash system.

Charles Laughlin, who had been sick, resumed his place in the Pittsburg boiler shop this morning.

Supt. J. B. McKim is in Pittsburg to attend a meeting of the time-table committee of the Pennsylvania company.

Nickel Plate Fireman R. M. Evans has taken a week's leave of absence from his engine on account of the sickness of his wife.

F. Hibinger yesterday became a brakeman on the Nickel Plate road. He is a brother of John Hibinger, a well-known conductor on that road.

Nickel Plate passenger train No. 3 was over two hours late in reaching the city last evening. Heavy train and a strong wind were factors in the delay.

Owing to the reduced rates it is reported that travel in the northwest is extraordinarily heavy, with indications of an increase in the near future.

The Chicago and Eastern Illinois is asking for bids on from 500 to 1,000 coal cars, or 2,000 to 5,000 box cars, and on twenty passenger coaches.

The St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company has placed a $2,500,000 contract for the improvement of the company's roadbed from Kansas City south through Missouri, Oklahoma and the Indian territory into Texas.

John Moring, the oiler, resumed work at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning, after an absence of over a week. He was quarantined on account of the sickness with scarlet fever of his little son. The lad is well, or nearly so.

Charles Rodenbeck resumed his place in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning after an absence of a week. He was injured in the side by being struck by a big iron hook with which he was endeavoring to pull a piece of steel from the furnace.

J. H. Bending, machinist at the Bass works, yesterday sent his household effects and family to his recently purchased farm near Connersville, Ind. Mr. Bending will retain his position at the shops, possibly a year or two, and his son-in-law will have charge of the farm.

J. W. Mashbaum, C. W. Lee, H. H. Hoppe and L. A. Bixler, car builders at the east shops, and H. C. G. Meyers, car repairer at Adams station, are off duty, all on account of sickness, except Mr. Mashbaum and Mr. Bixler, who were victims of accidents.

The conference of the master mechanics and road foremen of engines of the northwestern system of the Pennsylvania closed last night and the visiting members have departed for their homes. The conference continued two days and was a most interesting and instructive affair.

All the roads in Central Traffic association territory will sell round-trip tickets at one and one-third fare on November 28 and 29, good to return November 30, between stations on their lines not to exceed a distance of 150 miles from starting point and also to many points on connecting lines within that distance.

The Chicago and Rock Island has decided to operate for itself the eating houses on its lines west of the Missouri river in order to give better satisfaction. The eating houses of the company will be refurnished and refitted and placed under direct supervision of Frank Stewart, superintendent of the dining car service of the company.

There is much speculation in local transportation circles over the incorporation of the Chicago and Toledo Railroad company. Indiana and Michigan capitalists are said to be the incorporators, and the line is planned to be built from the Indiana and Chicago boundary line to Toledo, Ohio. It is believed to be a revival of an old project to connect these two cities with another road.

Kansas City jobbers in boots, shoes, hats, caps, notions and millinery again are making a hard fight against the proposed change in western classification which will require that all boxes containing such goods be wired. The roads have attempted to require the strapping of these boxes before, contending that their losses by claims made for goods are so large that some relief is imperative.

In recognition of Andrew Carnegie's gift of £10,000 for a new building for the Stevens Institute of Technology, in Hoboken, N. J., it has been decided to present Mr. Carnegie with a section of an original thirty-six pounds T-rail from the Camden and Amboy railroad inclosed in a suitable receptacle. The rails were rolled in the Dowlees works in 1831, and were the first T-rails made or laid.

REDUCE MISSIONARY FUND

M. E. COMMITTEE CUTS THE FOREIGN ALLOWANCE

Decide on Reduction of $25,000 to be Distributed Over Home and Foreign Fields.

New York, Nov. 15. In the morning session of the general missionary committee of the Methodist Episcopal churches the consideration of the proposed reduction of $25,000 in the money for the foreign missionary field was taken up. It was decided to make this reduction so as to distribute it over the entire appppropriation for home and foreign fields, which is about $1,200,000. Of this latter sum the foreign field gets 57 per cent, or about $614,607; the balance, or about $463,658, goes to the home field. There are first districts in the foreign field, namely, Europe, South America and Mexico, Southern Asia, Eastern Asia and Africa. The committee appointed committees of five to take up each district and the question of apportioning the allowance for such territory. During the discussion Bishop Cranston, who recently returned from Manila, spoke on the proposition of including the Philippine archipelago in the Eastern Asia district.

POLICE CORRECT THE DRAMA.

St. Petersburg, Friday, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the police of Kieff have taken the theatres of that city in hand. They have not found it necessary to measure the length of the skirts of the members of the ballet. The evils which they desire to correct, and no doubt have already satisfactorily corrected, are of another character. There was some complaint that the pauses between the acts were too long, and the police decided that these waits must not last over fifteen minutes. The police also discovered that certain actors were being applauded far beyond their real merits. They, therefore, decided that in the future no actor may be applauded more than three times during the same performance.

Piano Confidence.

You may think this a peculiar expression. It may be, but did you ever stop to think that confidence in a piano, its maker and dealer is absolutely essential? You feel safer when buying a piano of the old reliable makes, pianos that have proven what they are, and not what the newer makers can only claim for theirs. The genuine article is always better than the imitation. It will pay you to call at Jacobs' Music Store, where you will find a line of pianos and organs of the highest order. He carries the Weber, Chickering, Kranich & Bach, Vose & Sons, Story & Clark, Raymond, Regent and other pianos, the Estey, United States and Chicago Cottage organs. An especially fine stock of the above-named makes, in fancy woods and latest design of cases have just been received, and no intending purchaser should fail to see them. Remember, too, that Mr. Jacobs sells on easy payments and at the lowest possible prices.

STRONG FAILURE.

SERIOUS ASPECTS COMING TO LIGHT.

AN INJUNCTION IS ISSUED

RESTRAINING EXECUTORS IN DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY.

PROTECTING A LARGE SUM

STRONG HELD FOR INVESTMENT.

New York, Nov. 15.—Judge Lacombe, of the United States circuit court, today, on the application of Eliza T. Griswold, of Philadelphia, granted a temporary injunction against Mary U. Strong, P. Bradlee Strong and Albert R. Shattuck, individually and as executors and trustees of the will of the late William L. Strong, which restrains them from parting with or disposing of certain mortgages, bonds, stocks and other securities claimed by the complainant.

The bill of complaint states that prior to November 2, 1900, the complainant entrusted to the late William L. Strong certain monies, approximately amounting to $162,000, for the sole purpose of investing the same for her benefit and account; that Mr. Strong advised her from time to time that such investments were made in good and sufficient mortgages, bonds and stocks and other securities.

The papers also assert that on the death of Mr. Strong the defendants took possession of his estate, including the property owned by the complainant, which on the 12th of November they refused to deliver to the petitioner; and she, therefore, asks that the three defendants or their agents be restrained from selling, delivering or parting with the property mentioned.

The connection of Mr. Strong with the Griswolds has extended over a long period. He was one of the most intimate friends of the elder Mr. Griswold, now deceased. The suit is brought by the heirs as individuals and not by the Griswold Worsted company. It is thought that this claim will be amicably adjusted and will not come to trial.

Maj. Putnam B. Strong said today that his mother owns the house, 12 West Fifty-seventh street, which may be worth $175,000, and that she also has a small income from property left her by her grandfather, Israel Shelton, a southern planter.

"I know nothing about the report that comes from Philadelphia fixing the liabilities at $6,000,000. My opinion is that the liabilities are not so large," he said.

"It is untrue that my father worried over his affairs and that this worry hastened his death."

The doors of the firm did not open this morning.

Edward A. Treat, receiver for the Strong firm, when asked about the injunction granted by Judge Lacombe to Eliza T. Griswold against the Strong heirs, referred inquiries to Arthur H. Van Brunt, one of the attorneys for the receiver, who said:

"I have given out everything except the figures. These I do not know about. It will take some time to find out the amount of the liabilities and to balance them with the assets. Then it will be a week or two weeks before the books can be gone over. No, I don't care to talk about the matter of notes just now."

LIGHT ON THE GRANT FAILURE.

New York, Nov. 15.—J. Campbell Thompson, an attorney for Mrs. Marcie Cox, daughter of the late Edgar E. Duryea, millionaire starch manufacturer, makes a statement in connection with the Grant Bros. failure to the effect that Duryea had speculated through the firm and that more than a year ago he decided to change his brokers. In doing so Duryea made a demand on Grant Bros. for $100,000 due him, which the firm could not pay. Mr. Thompson says that within the last sixty days one of the executors of the Duryea will made a demand on Grant Bros. for settlement and had not been successful. Frederick Grant, of the firm, says he knows nothing about Duryea and that no one of that name has any account on the firm's books.

A statement made last night by Frank Bergen, the legal representative of John K. Van Sickle, junior partner of Grant Bros., to the effect that an expert accountant had looked over the firm's books at the request of Mr. Van Sickle, was partially confirmed today.

The accountant in question, Leonard H. Conant, admits that he has been retained by Mr. Bergen and that he has made a "cursory" examination of Grant Bros.' books. The examination did not proceed far enough, Mr. Conant said, to show the exact condition of the firm. He felt sure that the result would not be discreditable to Mr. Van Sickle.

THE DEATH OF MRS. KNIGHT

EXPIRED WHILE VISITING IN LOGANSPORT.

Remains Will ArriveHere Over the Wabash Tonight—Funeral Not Arranged.

Relatives in the city were informed last night by a telegram of the death of Mrs. Eliza Knight, which occurred yesterday at Logansport. The lady had gone to that city to visit her daughters and was taken sick less than one week ago. Mrs. Knight was the widow of the late William Knight, foreman of the Pennsylvania car shops, who died last April. She was about 66 years old and was married to Mr. Knight at Leatherhead, England, in February, 1854, and immediately afterwards came with her husband to Fort Wayne, where they resided up to the time of their deaths. Surviving Mrs. Knight are five children, as follows: Mrs. Charles Carter and Mrs. George Anderson, of this city; Mrs. John Norton, of Chicago; Mrs. Charles Traut and Mrs. Flora Baker, of Logansport. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Knight has spent much of her time with her daughters. She was at the home of Mrs. Traut when taken ill. The attack was not considered of a serious character and the news of her death came as a shocking surprise to her Fort Wayne relatives and friends. The remains will arrive here this evening at 6:29 o'clock, over the Wabash, and will be taken directly to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter, 18 East Creighton avenue, from whence the funeral will be held at an hour to be announced later.

The grand requiem mass of Cherbuini was sung. The pall bearers were: James H. Haggin, John W. Mackey, Henry H. Rogers, Hosmer B. Parsons, John A. Sullivan, ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant, William Scallon and William L. Bull. The casket was taken to Calvary and placed in the receiving vault.

SLAIN BY THE GAS

COUPLE FOUND DEAD IN NEW YORK HOTEL.

NO INDICATION OF SUICIDE

DR. APLESTROM AND AN UNKNOWN WOMAN.

SHE HAD JEWELS AND FINERY

RETIRED EARLY AFTER DRINKING IN CAFE.

New York, Nov. 15.—Dr. Christopher T. Aplestrom of this city, and an unknown woman were found in a bedroom in the Boulevard hotel, in Broadway. Both had been suffocated by illuminating gas.

Rhenhold Busse, proprietor of the hotel said the couple, whom he had never seen before, came to the hotel about five o'clock yesterday afternoon. They drank together in the restaurant and seemed in the best of spirits.

About seven o'clock the man asked for a room for himself and the woman. He registered as "John Mullen and wife, New York City." He was assigned to a room on the third floor. The room was a small hall bedroom.

About two o'clock this morning Proprietor Busse found that gas was escaping from the room. An entrance was forced and the gas was found escaping from a radiator. One of the gas jets burned. The woman was found on the floor and the man on the bed. Both were dead.

The woman was a handsome brunette about 27 years old. Her clothing was of good quality. On her left hand were found four rings, which the police say, are worth $1,000. In the room was a seal-skin sacque with a tag upon it bearing the name of "Marshall Field & Co., Chicago."

There were no signs on either body indicating poison. It is the opinion of the hotel proprietor and the police that their deaths were accidental, the occupants of the room failing to properly shut off the radiator's gas supply.

Dr. Aplstrom was a widower. His daughter Rachael, who lived with him was unable to give any information bearing upon the tragedy except that yesterday afternoon a woman of the description of the one found dead called at her father's office.

Rachael admitted her believing her to be a patient. The visitor left in half an hour and was not accompanied from the house by the doctor.

NICHOLAS II. ILL

SICKNESS OF THE SZAR IS DISTURBING EUROPE.

HE HOLDS EUROPE'S PEACE

HIS LIFE NECESSARY NOW MORE THAN EVER.

CREDITED WITH SINCERITY

BRITISH PRESS PAYS HIM MUCH HONOR.

London, Nov. 15.—The serious apprehension with which the announcement of the fact that the czar was suffering from typhoid fever filled Europe emphasizes how much the peace of the world is believed to be dependent upon him. But for the statement contained in the official bulletin that his majesty's malady is taking a thoroughly favorable course the news of his illness would have created nothing less than consternation.

It is generally felt at the present critical state of international affairs that even a temporary weakening of the influence of so favorable a factor in the maintenance of the world's peace justifies grave anxiety, especially as the czar is regarded in Europe as a kind of counterpoise to Emperor William.

Public anxiety will, therefore, remain strained until the none too robust monarch recovers.

In political circles any other issue of his majesty's malady is regarded as a nightmare.

The London newspapers comment on the czar's illness with peculiar sympathy. The Times remarks that it has always been believed in England that the czar "reciprocated the national sentiment toward him and cherished real regard and reverence for our beloved queen."

The Times also says:

"The czar has exhibited consistent attachment to the cause of peace. It is hardly necessary to say that any event which will lead to a change in the occupant of the Russian throne at the present anxious state in the far east might very gravely prejudice the situation."

WILL LYNCH MURDERER.

Denver, Col., Nov. 15.—Statements made by John Porter, a 16-year-old negro of Lawrence, Kas., who yesterday confessed that he murdered Louise Forest, a 11year-old school girl of Limon, Col., have been confirmed. It has been determined to take Porter to the Hugo jail. It is probable that Porter's father and brother also will be taken to Hugo. It was reported today that a dozen armed men from Limon are on route to Denver for the purpose of escorting the sheriff and his prisoners. A mob of 500 men is said to be forming at Limon and Hugo and that they make no secret of their intention to lynch Porter at all hazards.

Frank Alderman Suicides By Shooting at the Store of Pfeiffer & Son.

NO KNOWN CAUSE FOR TRAGEDY

The city received a terrible shock this morning about 10 o'clock when the news circulated rapidly that Frank Alderman, one of Fort Wayne's best known citizens, had taken his own life, while chatting with W. H. McClelland, an old-time friend, in H. Pfeiffer & Sons' hardware store, on Columbia street. The truth of the rumor was soon verified and little knots of business men discussed for hours the tragic deed which had removed from life's estate a man who had done much to make Fort Wayne the metropolis of northern Indiana.

For nearly forty years Mr. Alderman and W. H. McClelland had been close friends, having served together during the war of the rebellion in the Eighty-eighth Indiana infantry, under Col. C. E. Briant. Oftentimes had Mr. Alderman visited his friend in the hardware store of H. Pfeiffer & Son, where Mr. McClelland was employed. It was about 9:30 this morning when Mr. Alderman dropped into the Pfeiffer store. Mr. Pfeiffer and one of his sons were at the office desk in the rear of the store, another son was busy at a counter in front and clerks were attending to their usual duties. Mr. Pfeiffer glanced up and saw that the visitor was Mr. Alderman. He inquired if anything was wanted and Mr. Alderman asked, "Where is Mac?" "He is about the store some place," replied Mr. Pfeiffer, and Mr. Alderman paced back and forth waiting for his friend. He talked to Henry Pfeiffer, jr., who was working on a lock. "Well," said Mr. Alderman, "I see you are picking a lock." "Yes," came the reply, "that is part of our business." Mr. Alderman smiled and said: "It is not safe to have men about who can pick every lock they handle." He walked back to the stove and seated himself in a chair.

Presently W. H. McClelland put in an appearance and there was the usual exchange of morning greetings. Mr. McClelland asked if anything was wanted and Mr. Alderman stated that he wanted to buy a revolver. "What for?" came the query from Mr. McClelland. "Oh, I want to kill a dog with it." Mr. McClelland did not hurry to get the revolver and Mr. Alderman made the second request. Then occurred a conversation between the two friends as to the advisability of Mr. Alderman owning a gun. Mr. Alderman insisted and the guns were shown to him and he decided to purchase a 32-calibre Harrington & Richardson make. The revolver, of course, wasn't loaded, and Mr. Alderman asked Mr. McClelland to place the cartridges in it. Mr. McClelland hand some hesitancy in doing this, replying that he would get him a box of cartridges and Mr. Alderman could load it himself. The cartridges were on the third floor of the store and when Mr. McClelland started after them Mr. Alderman went with him. Mr. McClelland suggested that he had better wait on the lower floor, but Mr. Alderman insisted and went along. The cartridges are on a shelf on the west side of the store, a few feet from the front windows, and before loading the revolver Mr. McClelland again suggested that Mr. Alderman could load the gun some other time. But he insisted and then Mr. McClelland suggested that they go down stairs and the revolver could be loaded there. But Mr. Alderman explained that he had never carried a revolver and he didn't want anybody to know that he had one, and requested Mr. McClelland to load it and he would put it in his coat pocket and none of his friends would know that he had it. Mr. McClelland hesitated, gazing intently at his friend, never once anticipating that he intended to take his own life, only fearful that he might have had trouble with some person and desired the revolver as a weapon of defense in case of attack. Mr. McClelland again inquired why Mr. Alderman was so anxious to get the revolver and he said, "I'll take it and put it in my pocket, and if that dog molests me again I will kill it." Mr. McClelland loaded the revolver and handed the cartridge box to Mr. Alderman, who refused it with the statement that he would call and get it later. He then handed the loaded gun to Mr. Alderman and the latter took it and immediately thrust it into the outside pocket on the right side of his coat. Mr. McClelland turned and stooped down to replace the cartridges and as he did so heard two steps behind him. He glanced about and saw that Mr. Alderman had stepped back toward the middle window and had the muzzle of the revolver thrust into his mouth.

PULLED THE TRIGGER.

The gentlemen were eight feet apart, but Mr. McClelland made a leap toward his friend, crying as he did so, "Frank, what do you mean?" He was too late, however. As he leaped toward Mr. Alderman there was a loud report, the form tottered, the revolver was discharged for the second time and in a few seconds Frank Alderman lay prostrate in death on the floor. Another employe in the rear of the store heard the report, but believed something had fallen until Mr. McClelland called that Frank Alderman had shot himself. One glance satisfied Mr. McClelland that death had been instantaneous and he immediately hurried to the first floor, told Mr. Pfeiffer and his sons what had happened and reported the tragedy by telephone to Lieutenant Lapp at the police station. Lieutenant Lapp took charge of the remains until the arrival of Coroner Barnett.

SON VIEWED REMAINS.

Dayton Alderman, a brother of Frank, was the first relative to be notified of the tragedy and he was there to meet the eldest son, Frank, jr., when he arrived. The son had been informed of the awful tragedy by telephone.

He went to the Pfeiffer store and while there arranged for Undertaker Pellier to take charge of the remains as soon as the coroner viewed them. He also arranged for the sad news to be broken to the wife and little daughter who were at the suburban home. To a Sentinel reporter Mr. Alderman said that he and his wife had stayed over night with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alderman, sr.: in fact, all of the Alderman family were with the old folks during Wednesday night. Mr. Alderman arose as usual about 6 o'clock this morning and awakened the other members of the family. After breakfast he insisted that Frank should come down town with him and they came to Mr. Alderman's office together. The elder Alderman opened his mail and read it, but there was no expression of dissatisfaction over his affairs and he apparently was in his usual spirits when he left the office and requested the son to remain there until he returned. The next news the young man had of his father was the telephone message from W. L. Moellering telling him of the tragedy. Frank Alderman, jr., said: "I know father has been much worried recently about his business affairs and did not care to have mother know that he was in financial straits, but this is terrible. Who would ever have believed father would kill himself!" He left with his uncle, Dayton, before the arrival of the coroner.

CORONER SEES REMAINS.

There was considerable delay in notifying Coroner Barnett of the tragedy and it was almost 11 o'clock when he arrived at the hardware store. He viewed the remains, made an examination of the wounds, took possession of the property on Mr. Alderman's person and a list of the names of the most important witnesses. A close examination of the wound showed that the bullet was not fired into the mouth, but was fired through the right temple, passing through the base of the brain and lodging near the left temple. Death had been instantaneous. Mr. McClelland is positive that Mr. Alderman had the revolver in his mouth when he turned on him, and the fact

HAS GONE TO REST

DEATH CLAIMS A PIONEER FORT WAYNE WOMAN.

MRS. J. K. EDGERTON NO MORE

SUCCUMBED TO HEART DISEASE THIS MORNING.

RESIDED HERE SINCE 1844

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERALS OF THE DAY.

Another of the older residents of Fort Wayne, known, loved and esteemed through more than half a century of its history, passed from earth this morning when Mrs. Hannah Maria Edgerton peacefully closed her eyes in eternal sleep. Her death occurred at the Edgerton homestead, 37 West Wayne street, at 6 o'clock, and was due to heart disease.

Mrs. Egderton was the widow of the late Hon. Joseph K. Edgerton, one of the city's earliest lawyers and most eminent citizens, who died in 1893. Mrs. Edgerton has been in failing health for some years. Nearly three years ago indications of heart trouble developed, though it has only been within the last two weeks that the symptoms became of an alarming nature. Even then the aged patient was not confined to her bed until thirty-six hours before her death. During yesterday, however, there was a more pronounced decline that baffled medical skill, and she gradually sank until the end came this morning. Mrs. Edgerton was conscious to the last, and up to the very hour of death her mental vision was unclouded.

Mrs. Edgerton would have been eighty-two years of age in December next. She was born in New York city December 22, 1818, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Spies. Her father came from an old Holland family, while the mother was of English birth. She was united in marriage to Joseph K. Edgerton in New York January 23, 1839. Here Mr. Edgerton, then a young attorney, had begun his legal practice, and here they resided for five years. The young lawyer visited the west in the interest of a client in 1843, and was so favorably impressed that he determined to remove to Indiana. His brother, Hon. A. P. Edgerton, was already located here, and in 1844 Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Edgerton came to Fort Wayne, where they remained continuous residents until life was done.

Coming at that early day, they were with and of the sturdy pioneer people who laid the foundations for Fort Wayne's present greatness, commercially, professionally, industrially and socially. The trip from New York was made by way of the canal, and was accomplished only after tedious journeyings. Here Mr. Edgerton resumed the practice of law, and through succeeding years rose to an eminent position in his profession, became a leading factor in business life and was honored by election as representative in congress during the war period. Sharing, no doubt, in his trials as well as his triumphs, was the tender, loving, helpful wife and mother who passed away this morning.

To Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton were born eight children. A son, Joseph K. Edgerton, jr., died in infancy, while two sons and five daughters survive. They are Mrs. George Nelson, of Piqua, Ohio; Mrs. Henry B. Rumsey, of this city; Edward C. Edgerton, of Woodburn; Miss Clara Edgerton, and Clement W. Edgerton, of this city; Mrs. E. R. Morris, of Fort Wayne, Detroit, and Mrs. W. F. Martin, of Fort Sheridan, Ill. All were at the mother's bedside save Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Rumsey, the latter being temporarily in Chicago. Mrs. Martin's husband is serving with the United States army in the Philippines. There are nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Edgerton was a devoted member of Trinity Episcopal church and a member of the ladies' organizations connected with it. She was one of the very earliest members of the church in this city—having with her husband assisted in founding the first Episcopal church, which stood at the corner of Harrison and Berry streets, directly opposite the Berry Street M. E. church. Through fifty-five years of residence in this city Mrs. Edgerton enjoyed to the fullest measure the esteem and respect of all people. Among those who formed the early citizenship of Fort Wayne most of whom preceded her to the beyond—Mrs. Edgerton was very widely known, and during the later years of her life the admirable attributes of her character attracted and held the friendship and interest of those much younger in years as cordially as did the ties which bound the friends and neighbors of pioneer days.

The announcement of funeral services will be made later.

RENTSCHLER.

Mrs. Mary A. Rentschler, wife of Philip Rentschler, died at 6 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 133 Baker street, at the age of 34 years, 5 months and 12 days. Mrs. Rentschler had been ill but a few days, and her death was due to a complication of diseases.

Surviving are the husband and four children—Hattie, Grace, John and George. Other relatives are the father, Peter Amstutz; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Sweeney and Mrs. Anna Blakesley, of Chicago, and four brothers, Peter Amstutz, of Kansas City; Joseph Amstutz, of Kansas City; Henry Amstutz, of Chicago, and John Amstutz, of St. Louis.

Funeral announcement will be made later.

BRICK.

Elizabeth Brick, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brick, died at 5 o'clock this morning at the home, 73 Holton avenue, from exhaustion, at the age of five months.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Bosch will officiate.

BY HIS OWN HAND

that the bullet was not fired into the mouth indicates that as soon as Mr. McClelland shouted Mr. Alderman hastily placed the revolver against the right temple and fired, as his hair is considerably singed where the bullet entered. The second ball was found imbedded in the boxes near the front window and the location of the bullet indicates that Mr. McClelland was not missed more than three or four inches. The second discharge was probably caused by the contraction of the muscles as Mr. Alderman started to fall. As soon as the coroner had viewed the remains they were taken to Peltier's morgue and prepared for burial. Late this afternoon they were taken to the home on South Hanna street.

CAUSE FOR TRAGEDY.

Relatives and friends are unable to give a cause for the tragedy, except that it was due to temporary aberration of mind. Mr. Alderman was a big dealer in real estate, one of the prettiest additions to the city of Fort Wayne being the plat annexed by him in the southeast part of the city, which is now spotted with scores of pretty homes. He had recently purchased the Houck farm, near Floyd's Mills, in Perry township, and the McDonald farm, along the banks of the St. Joe river, which he secured only a short time ago by purchase from the Hamilton National bank. Mr. Alderman was progressive and willing always to bear his just share of the expense of any improvements which might affect the value of his property. He oftentimes paid assessments against the property of others that he might secure improvements. If he believed he was being imposed upon he was a strenuous opponent and used every honest means to protect himself. He has often had wordy tilts with members of the city boards, and while many bitter words were often uttered in these disputes, they were soon forgotten. He was kind hearted to everybody and impulsive as a child. No matter who the person might be—man, woman or child—if he or she were needy, they were not turned away without a kind word and substantial recognition from Frank Alderman. There is deep regret at the manner of his taking off and none to say that he did not always have the best interests and the welfare of his city at heart. A soldier himself, he was the father of two sons who saw service in the war with Spain, and it was Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alderman who, while the boys were camped in the south three years ago, always kept them before the people of Fort Wayne by arranging some events to raise money with which to send them medicine and other necessities. One of the greatest lawn fetes ever given in Fort Wayne was that at the Alderman home in the summer of 1899, when a neat sum of money was raised for the boys in the south.

THE REVOLVER.

The revolver with which Mr. Alderman killed himself is in the possession of the coroner. When it was delivered to him by Mr. McClelland he handed over $5.50 and the gun became his property.

LIVED HERE ALL HIS LIFE.

Frank Alderman was born in Milan township in the early forties, of sturdy parents, and he was reared on this farm. In 1863 he enlisted in the civil war and served with Col. C. E. Briant in the Eighty-eighth Indiana regiment. He returned to his Milan township home after the war and a few years later came to Fort Wayne and for years conducted an agricultural implement agency on West Columbia street. He was from the first recognized as one of the best implement men in the business. In 1882 he was partner in the firm of Alderman, Yarnelle & Co., which succeeded to the immense heavy hardware business of A. D. Brandriff. This partnership continued until 1891, when he disposed of his interests to W. E. Mossman. Since that time Mr. Alderman has been an extensive dealer in real estate. He was at the time of his death proprietor of the Rocker Washer manufactory, located in the eastern part of the city, at the corner of Erie and Canal streets. Inquiry of bankers and financial agents today develops that Mr. Alderman was in fair circumstances. While he carried many heavy obligations, there was no danger that he could not have at any time realized many thousands of dollars more from their sale than he owed.

Mr. Alderman was married to Miss McKee shortly after he located in Fort Wayne, and she, with three children, survives him. The children are Frank and Harry and a daughter, Dollie, aged fifteen. Dayton Alderman, a brother, and three sisters survive. The sisters are Mrs. Dr. G. P. Swift, of Maysville; Mrs. Charles Jenness, of this city, and Mrs. Charles Drury, of Kansas City. Mr. Alderman was a member of the Royal Arcanum, in which he carried $3,000 insurance. He also carried a policy in the Equitable.

WOMEN MUST SLEEP.

Avoid Nervous Prostration.

If you are dangerously sick what is the first duty of your physician? He quiets the nervous system, he deadens the pain, and you sleep well.

Friends ask, "what is the cause?" and the answer comes in pitying tones, nervous prostration. It came upon you so quietly in the beginning, that you were not alarmed, and when sleep deserted you night after night until your eyes fairly burned in the darkness, then you tossed in nervous agony praying for sleep.

MRS. A. HARTLEY.

You ought to have known that when you ceased to be regular in your courses, and you grew irritable without cause, that there was serious trouble somewhere.

You ought to know that indigestion, exhaustion, womb displacements, fainting, dizziness, headache, and backache send the nerves wild with affright, and you cannot sleep.

Mrs. Hartley, of 221 W. Congress St., Chicago, Ill., whose portrait we publish, suffered all these agonies, and was entirely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; her case should be a warning to others, and her cure carry conviction to the minds of every suffering woman of the unfailing efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Life's a Sack Race

To a sick man. He's hobbled, hampered, handicapped by his sickness. Every little while he has to lay off for a day.

He can't get ahead. Everybody passes him in the struggle for success. If sickness originates in a diseased condition of the stomach (and most sickness does) there's a cure for it. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is not a cure-all, but a medicine specially designed to cure diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures many forms of disease, because many forms of disease originate in a diseased condition of the stomach and digestive and nutritive system.

"I write to tell you of the great benefit I have received from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. C. D. Bird, of Byrnside, Putnam County, West Va. "It cured me of a very bad case of indigestion associated with hepatic liver. Before I began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I had no appetite; could not sleep to work but very little. The little that I ate did not agree with me; bowels constipated, and life was a misery to me. I wrote to Dr. Pierce, giving the symptoms, and asked for advice. You advised me to try the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' so I began the use of it, and after taking four bottles I felt so well that I went to work, but soon got worse, so I again began the use of it, and used it about eight weeks longer, when I was permanently cured. I took in all about twelve bottles of the 'Discovery,' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in connection with the 'Discovery.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels in healthy action.

BAD DREAMS

Caused by Coffee.

"I have been a coffee drinker, more or less, ever since I can remember, until a few months ago I became more and more nervous and irritable, and finally I could not sleep at night for I was horribly disturbed by dreams of all sorts and a species of distressing nightmare.

"Finally, after hearing the experience of numbers of friends who had quit coffee and gone to drinking Postum Food Coffee, and learning of the great benefits they had derived I concluded coffee must be the cause of my trouble, so I got some Postum Food Coffee and had it made strictly according to directions.

"I was astonished at the flavor and taste. It entirely took the place of coffee, and to my great satisfaction, I began to sleep peacefully and sweetly. My nerves improved, and I wish I could warn every man, woman and child from the unwholesome drug, ordinary coffee.

"People really do not appreciate or realize what a powerful drug it is and what terrible effect it has on the human system. If they did, hardly a pound of it would be sold. I would never think of going back to coffee again. I would almost as soon think of putting my hand in a fire after I had once been burned.

"A young lady friend of ours, Miss Emily Pierson, had stomach trouble for a long time, and could not get well as long as she used coffee. She finally quit coffee and began the use of Postum Food Coffee and is now perfectly well. Yours for health. Don't publish my name."——Herington, Kan. There is a water famine in Kentucky and the inhabitants are praying for rain. This is poetic retribution. Kentuckians have scorned water too long.

Mr. McKinley's invitation to his cabinet to remain with him in his second administration is the first practical post-election recognition of the "four years more of the full dinner pail" issue.

Without knowing whether or not Mark Hanna sets down this spell of early winter to the credit of the republican party we want to endorse it. It has breathed the breath of life into mercantile business.

It is being exploited as a remarkable experience that a Sullivan county man was buried alive for thirty-eight hours. This is distanced several classes by Hon. Web Davis, who has been buried now eight days and yet shows no signs of coming to the surface for air.

Senator Vest, of Missouri, has broken a tense silence with an explanation of democratic defeat. History has merely repeated itself, he says, and there is no cause for democratic discouragement. This is at present comforting, but it is not reassuring. What is wanted is some inducement to history to give fresher sort of performance.

According to the statistical report of the department of education to be filed with the legislature there are in the state 765,004 school children. Of this number 383,308 are white boys, 357,620 white girls, 7,497 colored boys and 7,597 colored girls. The school houses in the state number 10,038, and the average paid male teachers in the township schools is $2.11 per day. The average for females is $1.94 per day. There are 7,208 male teachers employed in the state and 8,409 females, making a total of 15,671. The average length of school days in townships is 134, in towns 133, in cities 180 and in the state at large 152. The total amount paid city and town trustees for managing the school affairs for the last year was $20,471.60.

There is wisdom of a fine-spun sort in President McKinley's feelingly expressed wish to the members of his cabinet that they retain their portfolios through his second administration. It is not at all probable that all of them will find it desirable to do so or that the president expects to retain all of them. Most of the members of the cabinet are giving their services to the country and to the administration at considerable sacrifice of personal interests. The salary of a cabinet officer is not large. Several members of the cabinet, notably Gage, Root and Griggs could command greater salaries in business pursuits than Mr. McKinley receives as president. Cabinet duties entail very arduous responsibilities and doubtless a number of the president's advisers are anxious to retire to private life. But the president has asked them to stay and for the present it may be assumed that they will indicate acceptance. This will relieve the president of a period of vast annoyance and embarrassment between now and his second inauguration. In view of his expressed desire that there shall be no changes in his cabinet politicians will be slow to prod him for recognition in the construction of a new one. Mr. McKinley's invitation to his councillors to remain was no doubt sincere. They have borne a large share in the successes of the administration and are in thorough harmony with the president. It is easy to believe the president would regret to lose them. Yet it is not easy to believe he expects them all to continue in office. He has warded off the politicians for a time and such reconstruction of his cabinet as he may know to be necessary he may pursue in peace.

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED.

Every Sufferer from Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches Do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucus membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucus, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long-looked for catarrh cure.

HAAS FIGURES IT

WOULD PLACE ALLEN COUNTY IN EIGHTH DISTRICT,

ADDING WABASH TO TWELFTH

THIS WOULD MAKE BOTH DISTRICTS REPUBLICAN.

THE LAW WOULD NOT PERMIT

SUCH AN ASSIGNMENT OF COUNTIES—ALLEN IS SAFE.

Charles Haas, editor of the Wabash Plaindealer, who apparently is on the inside of proposed political legislation by the general assembly this winter, figures out a way by which Allen county can be placed in a republican district and the republicans gain one congressman in Indiana. Here is Mr. Haas' method:

"Wabash county may, under the new apportionment by the legislature this winter, be thrown into the Twelfth district. The republicans are planning to redistrict the state so that a gain of one in the congressional delegation may be made. The Twelfth district is democratic by anywhere from 500 to 3,000 and by shifting Allen county to the Eighth district and adding Wabash to the Twelfth the Eighth might be made republican, even with Allen's democratic majority, while the Twelfth, with Wabash included, would be republican forever and a day. There is little doubt that Allen's capacity for political evil will be destroyed by the legislature.

"The Eleventh district's enormous republican majority of 5,473 and the loss by the republicans of the Twelfth district, which adjoins, has set the republican politicians to calculating how part of that majority may be used to make the Twelfth safely republican. The republicans now have nine of the thirteen congressmen and it is thought that by placing Allen county in the Eighth district and throwing one or two of the strong republican counties of the Eleventh district into the Twelfth that another republican may be gained, even when the state goes democratic. The legislature will take up the redistricting of the state soon after it meets and the lines of the congressional districts of the northern part of the state are certain to be radically changed."

If this could be done all doubt as to Allen county being in a republican district would be past, inasmuch as Congressman Cromer, of the Eighth district, won by nearly 3,800 plurality on November 6. But the legislature cannot under the law add Allen county to the Eighth without taking from the Eighth some of the counties now constituting it. The Eighth district is already the largest in Indiana, there having been cast for congress more than 5,000 more votes than in the Indianapolis district and an average of more than 10,000 more votes than in the other districts of the state. By adding Allen county to the Eighth the voting population would be larger by 30,000 than the average vote in the other districts of the state. The law provides that counties in a district must be contiguous to each other, consequently with Allen in the Eight, Wells and Adams would be compelled to remain in the Eighth, as both counties are contiguous to Allen. These three counties will give an average democratic majority of 5,500. But the big republican counties of Randolph, Madison and Delaware would overcome this, Jay and Blackford, small counties, being practically a stand-off. With Jay and Blackford out of the Eighth the voting population would still be 20,000 too large and the only course to pursue would be to cut out either Randolph, Madison or Delaware. Randolph and Delaware are overwhelmingly republican, and with either out the district would be democratic. If Madison were taken out the republican plurality in the district, according to the vote cast November 6, would be less than 400, not a safe plurality by any means. Allen's normal majority is in excess of 3,000 and it is probable that the majorities hereafter will reach that figure, so that it is easily seen that Allen county cannot be added to the Eighth district and enough republican counties be left therein to insure a republican congressman. The democrats of Allen county are lucky in the fact that there is not a county adjoining this that gives a certain republican majority in excess of 400. In fact, Huntington and Noble are the only adjoining counties that give a republican majority at all. DeKalb, Whitley, Wells and Adams are all democratic. If Allen county is placed in a reliable republican district it will be because the vote is in excess of what the law requires or the district will present the appearance of a shoestring on the map.

A CLASS OF TWELVE.

Another splendid banquet at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening closed the semi-annual reunion of the Scottish Rite Masons of the Valley of Fort Wayne. Previous to this function the following candidates received the fifteenth and sixteenth degrees conferred by Darius Council, Princess of Jerusalem: Byron H. Barnett, Fort Wayne; J. Harvey Brokaw, Fort Wayne; Lewis C. Helm, Decatur; Osmond R. Manlove, Fort Wayne; Gilbert E. Shuman, Peru; Thomas R. Stoner, Van Buren; Albert C. Robbins, Auburn; Marion Smith, Geneva; James H. Hardison, Geneva; James N. McCain, Van Buren; Jefferson T. McCracken, Warren; Marion E. Yinger, Garrett.

REV. L. L. HENSON WILL GO TO PROVIDENCE.

Touching Evidences of Esteem Were Shown at the Meeting on Wednesday Evening.

The resignation of Rev. L. L. Henson, D. D., as pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, was reluctantly accepted last evening at a largely attended congregational meeting of the church. The vote showed 39 to 33 in favor of acceptance, only a portion of the members voting, and the scene at the conclusion was affecting, many being moved to tears.

Judge Allen Zollars made a brief address in behalf of the congregation, in which he expressed the universal regret that the pastor was about to leave for other fields. He spoke at some length of the things that had been accomplished since Dr. Henson assumed charge and voiced the general appreciation of his efforts toward the upbuilding of the church and the spiritual advancement of those connected with it during his pastorate. Other members of the church made addresses expressive of the universal esteem in which Dr. Henson is held and wishing that success might follow his work in the new field.

Rev. L. L. Henson has been pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle for the past five years, coming here from the Fuller Memorial church at Baltimore, Md., his first charge. Rev. Henson graduated from Clinton college in 1884 with the degree of A. B., and received the degree of A. M. from his alma mater in 1888. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him last June by Franklyn college. Dr. Henson is a man of strong personality, a vigorous expounder of the gospel and an untiring laborer in the interests of Christianity. His ministry in this city has been crowned with great success and during his pastorate here he has received into membership 441 persons. He organized Beaver chapel, a Baptist city mission, and has been active in the various branches of missionary work. Dr. Henson is a member of the international board of the B. Y. P. U. of America; of the state missionary board of the Indiana Baptist convention; of the board of trustees of the aged minister's home at Fenton, Mich., and of the Baptist orphanage of Chicago.

While no definite date has been set, it is probable that the resignation will take effect in December. The executive board of the church have not yet arranged to hear candidates for the pastorate and it is scarcely probable that any will be heard until after Dr. Henson leaves for his new charge.

The universal esteem in which the popular pastor is held is attested by the following paragraphs:

Baptist Outlook, Indianapolis—Rev. L. L. Henson, D. D., the popular pastor of the First church, Fort Wayne, has received a hearty and unanimous call to the pastorate of the Cranston Street Baptist church, Providence, R. I. We have not learned what his decision is yet, but we are sure we voice the sentiment of all his friends in Indiana when we say it is to be hoped he will remain in the Hoosier state, where he has already accomplished so much for our cause. Mr. Henson has one of the best churches in the state and his services have been recognized in many ways by our denomination in Indiana.

Journal and Messenger, Cincinnati—Rev. L. L. Henson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, Fort Wayne, Ind., has been called by a unanimous vote to the pastorate of the Cranston Street Baptist church, of Providence, R. I., which Rev. Dr. M. H. Bixby recently resigned. Will he go? That does not yet appear. All Indiana and The Journal and Messenger protest.

WOMAN'S KIDNEY TROUBLES

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing this Fatal Woman's Disease.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women.

The following letters will show how marvellously successful it is:

Aug. 6, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am failing very fast,—since January have lost thirty-five or forty pounds. I have a yellow, muddy complexion, feel tired, and have bearing down pains. Menses have not appeared for three months; sometimes I am troubled with a white discharge, and I also have kidney and bladder trouble. . . . I have been this way for a long time, and feel so miserable I thought I would write to you, and see if you could do me any good."—MISS EDNA FREDERICK, Troy, Ohio.

Sept. 10, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound according to directions, and can say I have not felt so well for years as I do at present. Before taking your medicine a more miserable person you never saw. I could not eat or sleep, and did not care to talk with any one. I did not enjoy life at all. Now, I feel so well I cannot be grateful enough for what you have done for me. You are surely a woman's friend. Thanking you a thousand times, I remain,

Ever yours
MISS EDNA FREDERICK,
Troy, Ohio.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and cannot praise it enough. I had headaches, leucorrhœa, falling of the womb, and kidney trouble. I also had a pain when standing or walking, and sometimes there seemed to be balls of fire in front of me, so that I could not see for about twenty minutes. Felt as tired in the morning when I got up as if I had had no sleep for two weeks. Had fainting spells, was down-hearted, and would cry."—MRS. BERTHA OFER, Second and Clayton Sts., Chester Pa.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot find language to express the terrible suffering I have had to endure. I had female trouble, also liver, stomach, kidney, and bladder trouble. . . . I tried several doctors, also quite a number of patent medicines, and had despaired of ever getting well. At last I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, thanks to your medicine, I am a well woman. I can not praise your medicine too highly for I know it will do all, and even more, than it is recommended to do. I tell every suffering woman about your Vegetable Compound, and urge them to try it and see for themselves what it will do."—MRS. MARY A. HIPLE, No. Manchester, Ind.

$5000 REWARD. We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO.

PUNY CHILDREN

TOO MANY OF THEM DIE.

Their Little Bodies Unable to Stand the Ordeal of Development.

WE THINK EVERY MOTHER IN THIS TOWN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT VINOL.

It is the Delicious Tonic We Advise for Growing Children.

Is your boy or girl pale and listless? Do they act differently from other children? Do they sleep poorly and eat poorly? Does your boy avoid the sports and games of other boys? Does your girl complain of headache and find her studies a hardship?

If so, you may make up your mind they are growing too fast. They need something to help nature in her great work of furnishing the necessary elements for creating flesh and muscle tissue, bone structure and rich, pure, red blood.

They need a tonic in the full sense of the word and we can tell you what to get.

It is Vinol Wine of Cod-Liver Oil, the great modern reconstructor. Children like it, it is so delicious to the taste, in spite of the fact that it contains a highly concentrated extract of the medicinal principles that are found in cod-liver oil.

But because the vile-smelling and tasting grease has been discarded and all of the other disagreeable features eliminated, the benefits of Vinol are easily understood.

Vinol acts favorably on the stomach, creates an appetite and enables the food that is eaten to do the greatest possible amount of good.

Following is a letter that bears directly on this subject:

"I was all run down and took Vinol. It did me so much good and it was so pleasant to take that I gave it to my children. They were growing fast and needed something in the way of a tonic and I found it to be just the thing for them."—SARAH PICKERING, 1933 Fall River, Mass.

We cordially invite mothers interested in the welfare of their children, as well as any one else needing a sure, safe and delicious tonic, rebuilder and rejuvenator, to call on us. We will gladly tell any one all we know about Vinol and why we so highly endorse it.

Inasmuch as we are always ready and pleased to refund the cost of Vinol to those who don't find it exactly what we claim it to be, it will be seen that we are prepared to substantially endorse our claims for the excellence of this marvelous preparation.

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 15.—Recently Benjamin Dake, residing in the northern part of this county, forbid his granddaughter, Miss Carrie Dake, from keeping company with Addison Fields, a young man of the community, since which time they have been meeting secretly at the homes of neighbors. Out of respect for her grandparents the girl refused to elope, but Tuesday night agreed that if her lover would procure the license and a magistrate on the morrow she would marry him, she to be in waiting when he and the magistrate appeared. Fields retired with a happy heart Tuesday night and yesterday morning procured the license and the services of 'Squire Maze, of Fairland, and started for the Dake home.

Miss Dake saw them coming, and leaving the house ostensibly to empty a dishpan, met the pair at the front gate of her home and was made the wife of Addison Fields, who informed her that he would return for her shortly, or after taking the 'squire home. He soon returned, but instead of being met by his bride, he was confronted by Benjamin Dake, who at the muzzle of a shotgun made the young man crawl back in his buggy and leave, while in the house, tied to a bedpost, was the bride of but a few hours.

Fields came to this city, consulted a lawyer and will resort to habeas corpus proceedings to secure his wife, over whom the grandfather stands guard and threatens to kill the first person who attempts to take her from his home. The young woman is the belle of the neighborhood and inherited a nice fortune through the death of her father, she being of legal age.

DOUBLE-HEADER WRECKED.

Marion, Ind., Nov. 15.—An eastbound double-header Panhandle freight train arrived in Marion about 8 o'clock last night and the cars were left standing on a grade at the west edge of the city while the engines passed through the city to a water tank. When the engines started back the freight cars went east coming down grade, the brakes in some manner having been loosened. The engines were halted before the collision came, but one engine was badly damaged and a freight car loaded with hogs was broken. Several animals were killed. It was five hours before the wreck was cleared away.

DEATH IN THE WATER.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 15.—County Physician Tolbert has received the report of the analysis of water from a well on the Sheets farm, west of this city, from the state chemist, which shows that the water was full of poison. This accounts for the death of three members of the family in quick succession, concerning which there was much speculation.

A CHANCE FOR PARTY SPOILS.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 15.—W. W. Woon, postmaster of this city, who was commissioned four years ago and who served two years under President Harrison, has announced that he will not be a candidate for reappointment. J. M. Crain, as chairman of the district committee, is in line for the office, but two other possible candidates are likely to be sprung—W. H. Bent and John C. Summerland. Horace Murphy, deputy postmaster, is also considering the matter.

HELD FOR CAUSING EXPLOSION.

Hartford City, Ind., Nov. 15.—Homer Butler and Thamer Burden are dead; Robert Julius, Daniel Graham, Fred Hornaday and George Sizemier are injured as the result of the blowing up by dynamite of the Marion Keystone club house at an early hour Tuesday morning. Two members of the club who were recently expelled are under arrest, charged with the deed. They are David Cannon and Albert Milton.

When the explosion occurred Butler and Burden were in a room on the second floor and were hurled across the street, where they were picked up unconscious and taken to a hospital, dying a number of hours later. The members of the club who were on the first floor were not seriously injured.

A DEAD MAN FOR A DRIVER.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 15.—Sitting upright in his buggy, stone dead, his hands grasping the lines, A. L. Burgan drove from Greentown eight miles to his home near Center, this county, last night. When the horse pulled up at the yard gate it "whinnied" for help and Mrs. Burgan came out and found her husband dead. Burgan died of heart trouble soon after starting on the journey, the horse continuing the trip with the corpse for a driver.

AN UNEXPECTED WEDDING.

Peru, Ind., Nov. 15.—The marriage of A. N. Dukes, of this city, and Miss Mame Thompson, of Ypsilanti, Mich., at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, at the home of the bride, created genuine surprise, especially among intimate friends of Mr. Dukes. Rev. Harry Nyce, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, this city, officiated. Mr. Dukes is one of the leading capitalists of northern Indiana, general manager of the Indiana Manufacturing company, this city, active in the promotion of suburban additions, interested in all large enterprises, one-third owner of the old Wabash and Erie canal bed, from Fort Wayne to Lafayette, Ind., and widely known. Miss Thompson is a niece of Mr. Dukes, by his first wife, standing high in the community of her home, and for some time residing at the home of Mr. Dukes. Mr. Dukes is 66 and the bride 28.

HE USED CHLOROFORM.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 15.—Walter Davis, a teamster, was aroused between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning by some one near his bed, and he detected the odor of chloroform. He threw out his hand and struck a man, and, with his wife, he leaped from his bed and caught the fellow, whom he locked in a room until the police arrived. The burglar proved to be James Dennis, colored. Mr. Davis first charged that the purpose was to burglarize the house, but as money on the dresser was left untouched, he now alleges that Dennis had criminal designs on Mrs. Davis. The accused is a porter in a barber shop. He denies that he contemplated crime of any sort, but claims that he wandered into the house while asleep. The charge of attempted criminal assault will be preferred against him.

HUNTING FOR TREASURES.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15.—John Pleashaway, chief of the Pottawattomi tribe of Indians, remained here after his tribe went away, and died twenty-five years ago. He was reputed to have buried his money. He left two daughters, Lizzie and Julia, and these, on the advice of a clairvoyant, came back here one week ago and encamped on the farm once owned by their father, locating on the bank of the river, on the land now owned by ex-State Senator D. R. Leeper. For several days these women, with the assistance of a laborer, dug extensively over the old farm, the clairvoyant declaring that there was a pot of gold and silver, as well as some valuable papers, buried there. The search was unsuccessful, and the Indian women have now broken camp and gone their way.

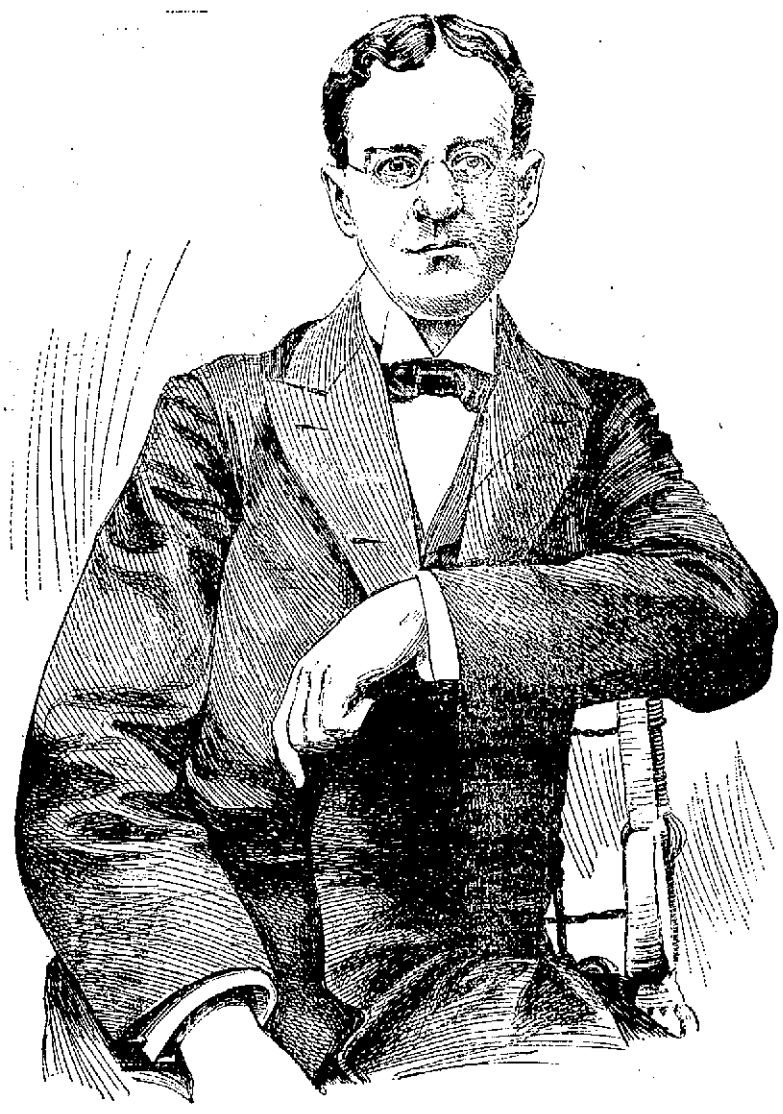
FATAL GAS EXPLOSION.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—A natural gas explosion at No. 1010 Carson street, South Side, at 8:30 o'clock today wrecked the building and seriously injured three persons, one fatally. The explosion was immediately followed by fire, which almost totally consumed the building. The injured are: Joseph Dobson, frightfully burned, will die; Mrs. Annie Dobson, his wife, painfully burned about the head and face, will recover; August Burchert, face and hands badly burned, not dangerous. It is thought that the gas accumulated in the house from a leak during the night. The loss on the house was $3,000.

REV. EDGAR WM. GEIL.



Rev. Edgar William Geil, the evangelist, arrived in the city today and will open the series of union revival services at the First Presbyterian church this evening. Rev. Geil comes from Atlanta, Ga., where he has been holding evangelistic services for the past four weeks. While in that city he preached to audiences of 3,000, and his preaching resulted in the conversion of several hundreds of people. A special feature of the services in this city will be the music, and a choir of the best voices in the city will sing each evening. The choir will be under the personal direction of E. F. Yarnelle. Rev. Geil is an evangelist of wide experience, both in this country and in foreign lands. He has traveled extensively, and has written a book on the Holy Land, which he visited a few years ago. His home is in Doylestown, a suburb of Philadelphia, and he is making an evangelistic tour of the world that will cover a period of five years, three of which will be spent in the United States. The tour is being made under the auspices of an association of eastern gentlemen who are interested in evangelistic work. His stay in this city will entail no expense whatever upon the local churches, his expenses being paid by the eastern gentlemen by whom he has been engaged to make the tour. Services will be held in the First Presbyterian church until Sunday evening, and during next week will be held in the Baptist tabernacle. After the 25th services will probably be held in Princess rink.

TALE OF CANNIBALISM FROM THE SOUTH SEAS.

Natives of the Savage Islands Kill and Eat a Trading Agent—A Slaughter of Natives.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—The schooner Mascotte, which has arrived here from the South Seas, brings a tale of cannibalism and the massacre of blacks on the Savage Islands. For the past two years the Mascotte has been trading between the Solomon Islands, New Guinea, and New Ireland. Its deck, rails and sails bear the marks of cannibals' spears and bullets.

The schooner arrived at Komali, in the Admiralty group, just after the murder of Herman Matzke, the trading agent there. This was on August 20. Captain Maccoan and a boat's crew went ashore and found the Capsa house had been looted and the trader's home was a wreck. In the yard of the latter a big pot was still sizzling over the dying embers of a fire and in the pot were found some of the bones of the trader.

The cannibals had not gone far. They had found in the agent's house fifteen guns, and with these they suddenly appeared and opened fire on Captain Maccoan and his crew. A hasty retreat was made to the schooner. The bullets from the Islanders riddled the sails and the foresail. Captain Maccoan brought into play a small gun and its noise, more than effectiveness, scared the cannibals off.

The Mascotte, which is an auxiliary schooner, in the Carolines, notified the officers of the German sloop of war, Zeadler, of the murder.

Both schooner and warship returned to Komali and the native villages were shelled. Eighty villages were destroyed by fire, sixteen natives were killed and twenty were taken prisoners. In June the Mascotte put into Matty Island, in the Salomon Groupe, and two traders went ashore with the super-cargo. A great crowd of natives, scenting a big feast, made for them and filled the air with spears. Captain Caccoan and his men killed four of the cannibals with rifles. The rest took to the woods.

DIVORCES BARRED

EPISCOPALIAN LAW IS TO BE REVISED.

RADICAL ACTION URGED BY SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

NO REMARRIAGE IN CHURCH

CHANGES TO BE SUBMITTED TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

New York, Nov. 15.—Episcopalian authorities have taken preliminary steps to forbid rectors of that faith from performing the ceremony of marriage when either of the contracting parties is a divorcee. Episcopalians who have been divorced and remarry are to be excommunicated by the church save when the person so remarrying is the innocent party to a divorce secured on the grounds of adultery. Such is the radical action proposed by the special committee appointed at the last general assembly of the Protestant Episcopal church, which yesterday afternoon unanimously adopted the following canons on the remarrying of divorced persons:

"Canon 2. No minister shall solemnize a marriage between any two persons unless, nor until by inquiring, he shall have satisfied himself that neither person has been, or is the husband or the wife of any other person then living, unless the former marriage was annulled by decree of some civil court of competent jurisdiction for cause existing before such former marriage.

"Canon 3. No person divorced for cause arising after marriage, and marrying again during the lifetime of the other party to the divorce, shall be admitted to baptism or confirmation or received to the holy communion except when penitent and separated from the other party to the subsequent marriage, or when penitent and in immediate danger of death, but this canon shall not apply to the divorce for the cause of adultery."

RADICAL REVISION.

Thus ministers are positively forbidden from again uniting in matrimony either the guilty or the innocent party to a divorce while the former wife or husband is living.

By this action the Protestant Episcopal church practically takes its place beside the Roman Catholic church in opposition to divorce. Heretofore Episcopal clergymen have used their discretion about remarrying the defendants in divorce cases. Bishop Potter has favored the existing liberal laws of the church relating to divorce, while Bishop Doane, of Albany, has led the fight for a radical revision of the divorce canon.

The subject has been agitated for years in the church, and ministers have arrayed themselves in two camps, one for, the other against, revision. Recent divorce scandals in high life are said to have made clear the duty of the church in the matter. Ministers high in authority said yesterday that the action of the special committee will undoubtedly be indorsed by the Protestant Episcopal church at the next general convention, and that the church will do its part to check the increasing disregard for the sanctity of the marriage relation.

THREATEN EXCOMMUNICATION.

While the proposed canon does not ignore the right of court authority to grant divorces, it prohibits remarriage in the Episcopal church, and provides a method of excommunication for those who go through a civil rite or marry in another church. No provision is made for a special dispensation such as may be obtained in the Catholic church, and in this respect the position taken is more radical than that of the church of Rome. Of the eleven members of the committee nine were present. Besides Dr. Dix there were Rev. Dr. Eugene A. Hoffman, dean of the general theological seminary of this city; Rev. Dr. J. H. Eccleston, of Baltimore; Rev. Dr. John Fulton, of Philadelphia; Rev. Dr. Mann, of St. Louis; Francis L. Stetson, of New York; Charles H. Stanley, of Washington, D. C.; Judge E. G. Bradford, of Wilmington, Del., and Francis A. Lewis, of Philadelphia. Mr. Lewis acted as secretary.

The committee was in session all day. It had previously considered the divorce canvass of the church at sessions in 1899 and at a meeting in this city on February 14 last. After a full discussion of the subject the canons were adopted.

CELEBRATING A GRAB.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—The Russian newspapers are jubilantly celebrating the fortieth anniversary of the treaty of Pekin, by which Russia acquired an immense amount of territory.

The Novoe Vremya, however, unfavorably compares Russian diplomacy then with European diplomacy now, and says that it is authorized to state emphatically that no effort will be made to press a campaign for a separate place by Russia in the negotiations with China. This is not, however, understood as representing the government's views.

MISS MORGAN IS WED TO HERBERT L. SATTERLEE.

St. George's Church a Scene of Floral Beauty—Bride Is Given Rich Gifts.

New York, Nov. 15.—Miss Louise Pierpont Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, was married at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in St. George's church, Stuyvesant Square, to Herbert Livingston Satterlee, a lawyer, of this city.

The invitations for the ceremony numbered 2,500, much beyond the seating capacity of the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Rainesford, rector of St. George's. The service was fully choral. The musical program was opened half an hour before the ceremony with Meyerbeer's coronation march, and included the "Moorish Serenade," by Jones; Jensens' "Bridal Song," selections from "Mignon," the march from "Tannhauser," and selections from "Romeo and Juliet." As the bridal procession entered the church the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was sung and played.

The bride, who was accompanied by her father, wore a superb wedding gown of white peau de soie, almost entirely covered with exquisite point d'Alencon.

The veil was of tulle, and the bouquet was of white orchids, lilies of the valley and white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ann Tracey Morgan, the bride's sister; Miss Caroline Morgan, Miss Ursula Morgan and Miss Frances Street Happin, her cousins; Miss Marion Satterlee, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss May Sturgess.

The floral decorations in the church and house were of an unusually elaborate character. The chancel was fully decorated with palms and white roses. Clusters of pinks and white roses decorated each pew end.

The Morgan residence, where the reception was held, was also handsomely decorated with a profusion of roses, chrysanthemums and palms.

The couple received in front of a mass of flowers. A buffet luncheon was served under a large temporary structure erected in the yard adjoining the house.

The bride received from her father a superb tiara and collar of diamonds and a brooch of marquese diamonds set in triface design, and, it is said, Mr. Morgan has set aside for her bonds of great value.

SIX FRIGHTFUL FAILURES.

Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen, of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, including Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00. ROBBED NEW YORK LIFE.

London, Nov. 15.—Edwin Barnes, a clerk, was remanded in the Bow street police court today on the charge of embezzling £1,480 belonging to the New York Life Insurance company.

HARMLESS RIOT AT TAMPA

CIGARSMAKERS' TROUBLE IS TO BLAME.

Rival Unions of Americans and Spaniards Cause a Hot Use of Firearms.

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 15—A miniature riot broke out today at the gates of the cigar factory of Gonzales, Mora & Co. Several hundred shots were fired. No one was injured and the mob was dispersed by the police. For several days trouble has been brewing between the members of the International Cigarmakers union and the Spanish union known as Resistancia. Members of the International union have quit work in a number of factories, throwing about 2,000 persons out of employment. The Spanish union is apparently not in sympathy with the movement and about 500 of its members continued at work in the Gonzales factory.

Today the Internationals marched up and demanded that these men come out. They were warned off the premises. An International man tried to push his way through the gates and was fired upon by the Italian guard. A volley was fired in reply from the street. The front and sides of the building were riddled. Those inside fired blindly through the windows. No one was hit, however. The police soon arrived and dispersed the crowd. All factories closed at noon, and to prevent further trouble 100 extra police and a squad of deputy sheriffs were sworn in.

THE REIFFS AGAIN RIDING.

London, Nov. 15.—The Racing Calendar, this afternoon, announces that the stewards of the jockey club adjourned without reaching a decision in the case of Wishard, the trainer, and Lester Reiff, the jockey. In the meanwhile, the fact that the latter is riding today indicates the correctness of The Associated Press forecast of Nov. 14, that Lord Durham's charges of "pulling" Richard Croker's The Scotchmann II. at Doncaster would not be sustained. Both the Reiffs were much in evidence at the derby November meeting today. In the race for the Drakelow selling plate, of 250 sovereigns for all ages, Lester Reiff had the mount on G. Cottrill's Orris Root, the winner of the event. He also rode Sheernus, which finished first in the race for the Elvaston Castle selling plate. The race for the Doveridge stakes of five sovereigns each starter, with 150 sovereigns added, was won by Lord Harewood's Nightshade, ridden by Johnnie Reiff.

ASHBURTON LIBRARY SOLD.

London, Nov. 15. The sale of the library of Lord Ashburton, at Sotheby's, yesterday and today, drew a number of American buyers. The library was largely collected by the first Baron Ashburton, when he was ambassador of Great Britain at Washington. Denton's brief description of New York, formerly the New Netherlands, unbound, of thirty-one pages, dated 1670, sold for £400 to a dealer representing a New York buyer. The same volume was sold at the Barlow sale in New York for £105. A similar pamphlet, unbound, twenty-two pages, "Virginia's Cure, being an Advisive Narrative of the Church's Unhappiness," went to the same purchaser for £76. Dumont's memorial Mss., relating to the sale of Louisiana, sold for £116.

NATIONAL GRANGE MEETS.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, transacted but little business at today's session, which occupied about an hour and a half. It was decided to confer the sixth and seventh degrees of the order tomorrow evening. There will be upward of 100 recipients of these degrees, the highest given by the Grange. About 350 of the delegates called in a body this forenoon at the white house, where they were received by President McKinley.

MR. JEFFERSON LECTURES.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 15.—Joseph Jefferson lectured on "The Drama" this afternoon in Alexander hall before fifteen hundred students and townspeople. President Patton introduced the lecturer. Mr. Jefferson answered a number of questions on the drama presented by the students. Ex-President Cleveland accompanied Mr. Jefferson to the hall and occupied a seat on the rostrum.

Emma Bessert has filed an affidavit in Justice Huser's court charging her ex-husband, Gustave Bessert, with provoke.

Nina Darling and Bessie Holsworth were fined $1.00 and costs each for drunkenness by Justice Huser. The girls were participants in the drunken escapade with several Garrett young men three weeks ago.

Charles Helems and Jacob Marquardt were fined $1.00 and costs by Justice France for harboring dogs and failing to list them for taxation.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. Dr. Beattie arrived in the city yesterday after a three weeks' visit in Philadelphia.

The A. C. L. orchestra and choral society will meet at their office in theNinde block Friday evening after school. Boys and girls who play the mandolin are urgently requested to be present.

The R. C. F. club will celebrate its third anniversary this evening at the club rooms on Swinney avenue. J. Leininger, of Ohio, will deliver an address to the club. A full orchestra will be in attendance.

The members of the Strife club royally entertained their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammett, last evening at progressive hearts. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a delicious three-course supper was served. Prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Koeneman and Miss Mame Larch, and the consolations were given to Guet Harber and Miss Emma Federspiel. Each guest was presented with a souvenir of the occasion in the shape of a red and pink silk ribbon, to which was fastened a silver heart. It was the occasion of the first gathering of the club.

SHERMAN WILL PROBATED.

Mansfield, O., Nov. 15.—The will of the late John Sherman was admitted to probate today in Judge Brinkerhoff's court. Col. Myron M. Parker, of Washington, D. C., and Congressman Kerr, of Mansfield, were made executors. No bond was required, the will having requested that no bond be asked. The probate judge stated that he had received no intimation that there would be any contest. Appraisers will be appointed later.

TWO BIG SUITS FILED.

Colorado Springs, Col., Nov. 15.—Two additional suits for $100,000 each have been filed in the district court here against Sam Strong, the well known Cripple Creek mine owner, by William Lennox and others and the Strong Gold Mining Co. The complaints allege that Strong caused the explosion which destroyed the buildings on the Strong mines on May 24, 1894, thereby greatly injuring the plaintiffs.

CONSUL MOSELEY DEAD.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The state department has been informed that R. A. Moseley, jr., consul general of the United States at Singapore, died yesterday at Yokohoma, Japan. He was granted leave of absence by the department some weeks ago upon representations that his health demanded a change of climate. Mr. Moseley was appointed to his post Jan. 7, 1899, from Alabama.

CONSOLATION FOR YERKES.

Washington, Nov. 15.—John W. Yerkes, late republican candidate for governor of Kentucky, and who recently resigned his position as collector of internal revenue, called on the commissioner of internal revenue today. He says he has abandoned all idea of contesting Governor Beckham's election. He probably will be reappointed to his old position.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Wheat opened easy and dull. The short interest was rather large, but made no extensive attempt to recover. December opened ½c lower at 72½c to 72½c, touched 72⅜c and reacted to 71⅝c. On the appearance of a cash demand December rallied sharply to 72⅝c. Local receipts were 52 cars, 10 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 339 cars, against 420 last week and 766 a year ago.

The opening of more mills at Minneapolis helped the market later. December advanced to 73⅜c and closed firm, ½c higher at 72½@72⅝c.

Corn was steady. The opening was a shade lower, December at 35¾c to 35⅞c. Country offerings were small, but receipts, 344 cars, were 24 cars over the estimate.

The close was firm, December a shade up at 35⅞@36c.

In oats there was only a small local trade. December opened a shade lower at 21⅜@22c and held steady. Receipts were 106 cars.

With hog receipts 7,000 head under the estimate the provisions market opened strong. January pork opened 15c higher at $11.65, touched $11.70 and later reacted to $11.62½. January lard opened 2½@5c up at $6.85@6.87½ and sold to $6.90, and January ribs 5@10c higher at $6.20@6.25, steadying early at $6.22½.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Nov., 72⅝c; Dec., 72½@72½c; Jan., 73⅜c.

Corn—Nov., 30½c; Dec., 35⅞@36c; Jan., 33⅜c; May, 36¼c.

Oats—Nov., 21⅞c; Dec., 22c; May, 24½c.

Pork—Nov., $10.65; Jan., $11.82½; May, $11.85.

Lard—Nov., $7.20; Dec., $7.05; Jan., $6.97½; May, $7.00.

Ribs—Nov., $7.20; Jan., $6.33; May, $6.37½.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.77; Cash S. W., $1.76; Nov., $1.75; Dec., $1.73; May, $1.74.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Cattle—Receipts, 9,000; market generally strong and active. Good to prime steers, $5.35@5.90; poor to medium, $4.35@5.30; stockers and feeders, $2.50@4.20; cows, $2.50@4.25; heifers, $2.75@4.75; canners, $1.25@2.40; bulls, $2.25@4.40; calves, $4.00@5.85; Texas fed steers, $4.00@5.00; Texas grass steers, $3.30@4.10; Texas bulls, $2.50@3.35.

Hogs—Receipts today, 33,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 2,710. Market 10@15c higher and active; top, $5.05. Mixed and butchers, $4.70@5.05; good to choice heavy, $4.80@5.05; rough heavy, $4.65@4.75; light, $4.70@5.05; bulk of sales, $4.85@4.95.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 15.—The level of price at the opening was generally higher and the points of special strength were about the same as those of yesterday. Metropolitan Street Railway rose 3 points, the Northern Pacific 1 and 1½ respectively on the common and preferred, and Baltimore and Ohio 1¾. There was heavy buying of Pennsylvania at a fractional advance. Only a few stocks showed slight losses.

But little interest was manifested in railroad stocks during the early trading, outside of the trunk line group, which advanced, except Baltimore and Ohio, which reacted. An active demand for the steel stocks caused an average rise of a point, and Leather and the Tobaccos rose strongly. Metropolitan Street Railway lost half of its initial gain, but New Jersey Central was pushed up to 145. Profit-taking in Sugar, Baltimore and Ohio, Northern Pacific and the metal stocks made the trading uncertain until 11 o'clock, when the tendency was generally downwards.

An advance of 1@1¾ in Canada Southern and C., C., C. & St. L. did not stimulate the market, but when Brooklyn Transit was lifted 1½ the list became rather more active and higher. Some good gains were made in spots. General Electric rose 3 and New Jersey Central 4¼. American Linseed Oil preferred recovered 3½ of yesterday's loss.

Bonds were quiet and firm.

Charles Behm, residing on Thomas street, sustained a bad fall on the slippery sidewalk near the Gay street bridge today and sustained a dislocated shoulder. Dr. Morgan attended him.

BROTHERHOODS WANT PEACE WITH SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

BIG LIVE STOCK MOVEMENT

OVER 125 CAR LOADS IN ONE DAY ON PANHANDLE.

A NUMBER OF UNFORTUNATES

FOUR PENNSYLVANIA MEN HAVE EYES INJURED.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—E. E. Clark, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. G. Lee, of Kansas City, first vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, have arrived here. They will try to straighten out the trouble existing between the Southern Pacific company and the local lodges of their respective orders. A conference probably will be held today.

HE BOUGHT THE APPLES.

Messrs. Frank Sarver, John T. Leach and Charles E. Gordon, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, are feasting upon Northern Spy and Fen Davis apples nowadays. Yesterday a bushel of the finest fruit was left at the office of the shop in payment of an election bet, the loser being Conrad Rodenbeck, janitor at the establishment, who believed that Colonel Bryan would be elected.

REDUCED RATES FOR MEETINGS.

All roads east of the Mississippi river have agreed to sell tickets at reduced rates for the following gatherings: Illinois State Federation of Labor convention, Kewanee, Ill., November 20-24; Grain Dealers' National association, Indianapolis, Ind., November 20-21; Fanciers' association, Indianapolis, Ind., December 12-15. The following applications have been declined: Indiana State Federation of Women's clubs, South Bend, Ind., November 15-17, arrangements not completed by applicant; Inter-State convention of southern cotton growers, Macon, Ga., November 20, account of limited number likely to attend from Central Passenger association territory.

SCRAP IRON GOES UP.

Recent advances in the price of steel and iron at the mills has been followed by a rise in the price of the "scrap" article all over the country. Old steel which brought $12 per ton at the Bass shops is today worth $13 per ton. This advance will very materially affect the earnings of manufacturing establishments which have not foreseen the rise and made its contracts accordingly. The scrap steel bought at the Bass works is manufactured into car axles.

RETURNED TO OLD PLACE.

Herman A. Miller, a blacksmith who came here last June from Woodburn to work in the Pittsburg shops, has resigned his position in that establishment. He will return to Woodburn and re-open his old shop. Mr. Miller is a very pleasant gentleman and the employes in the 'smith shop would like to have him remain there.

FORMERLY ON NICKEL PLATE.

Mr. T. B. Hindel, whose appointment to the foremanship of the Wabash shops and round house at Peru was exclusively mentioned Tuesday by The Sentinel, is well known to the Nickel Plate enginemen and trainmen, who entertain for him a very high regard. Eight years ago Mr. Hindel was master mechanic of the Stony Island shops and paid regular monthly visits to this city. The news of his appointment to the Peru position was a surprise to the Nickel Plate men and created considerable comment. Mr. Hindel left the Nickel Plate to take a position on a western road.

COULDN'T PASS EXAMINATION.

Mr. Kirkland, Pennsylvania freight agent at this point, denies in part a very disquieting rumor that has been quite extensively circulated throughout the city for the past week. It was reported that the company was making a big reduction in its force of workmen at the transfer house and that twenty men were dismissed there last week. Mr. Kirkland says that out of a total of 130 men employed twelve were discharged last Saturday because they failed to pass the physical examination. Their places were immediately filled by other men and the number of truckmen at the warehouse is as great today as at any time since the addition was erected and the transfer system established. Like some other railway companies, the Pennsylvania company requires from all new employes a rigid examination and those found deficient in a physical way are not retained. It is supposed that the examination will be made before the newcomer begins work, but owing to the urgent demand for laborers last summer and fall this rule was not observed. Men were given employment with the understanding that the permanency of their jobs would depend upon the result of the physical examination they would be subject to later. This was the case with the twelve men dismissed from the service last week, Mr. Kirkland says. They did not come up to the physical standard and, of course, could not remain in the employ of the company. Unfortunately the incident was greatly exaggerated and given wide circulation, creating uneasiness in the minds of other laborers, lest they, too, should lose their positions. The labor situation in Fort Wayne is bettter today than it was during any previous winter of the decade and there is no reason to believe that it will not continue for several months at least.

FOUR OF A KIND.

Four Pittsburg employes had their eyes injured yesterday and each is off duty pending treatment to the optics. Engineer George Miller got a hot cinder in his eye and so deeply was it imbedded in the ball that he had to call upon an oculist to cut it out. Machinists M. J. Lee and Ed E. Tierney, of the machine shop, were each struck in the eye with pieces of metal, and a chipping of steel got into one of the eyes of C. Gepfert, of the boiler shop. All of these unfortunates were treated by Dr. R. Parks White.

HEAVY EAST-BOUND TRAFFIC.

The railway officials say that everything indicates that the live stock and dressed meat traffic for some months to come will be unusually heavy, as will the grain and flour traffic, and east-bound shipments of hay, poultry and other products bid fair to be the heaviest ever known. In fact, it is said that now the live stock and dressed meat traffic is the heaviest in twenty years, says the Indianapolis Journal. On Sunday the Panhandle turned over to the Pennsylvania at Pittsburg 127 carloads of live stock. On one train there were thirty-one cars, containing over seven hundred cattle. There was one train made up of poultry, hogs and sheep. These trains are run at an average speed of thirty miles an hour. The deliveries of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago, as well as the Panhandle, were very heavy. The Pennsylvania lines, however, are not doing it all, as the live stock traffic of the Big Four is now the heaviest in many months. In fact, the Big Four is maintaining its enviable record as to volume of live stock and dressed meats traffic and the speed of its trains.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

J. C. Grable, yard engineer of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of sickness.

The electric works today sent a forty-light arc machine to West Hammond, Ill.

Luke Otten, of the Pennsylvania offices, has returned from Pittsburg, where he went last Monday.

John Fratis, machinist at the Wabash shops, is sick and this morning he was sent to the company's hospital at Peru.

Frank Krahn, of the electric works, who had a hand injured yesterday, is getting along nicely and will entirely recover from the injury.

John T. Leach, assistant foreman of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is not at his usual post of duty today, on account of the sickness of his wife.

Fred Garver, of the Wabash machine shop, will be off duty a few days. Yesterday a car wheel rolled against him, badly bruising one of his legs.

Conductor F. I. Stump and his crew will go to Cloverdale, Ohio, tomorrow to be tried for putting a man off a Findlay train after he had refused to pay fare.

Western railroads have refused the request of New York wholesalers to reduce rates during February and March to enable merchants to buy in New York city.

In the year ending June 30 there were four railway mail clerks killed and 144 injured—fifty-seven seriously. In the preceding year six clerks were killed and 212 injured.

Eight handsomely finished and vestibuled passenger cars, bearing the words "Atlantic Coast Line," formed a part of an east-bound Pittsburg train this morning. The cars were just out of the shop.

Fred Keifhaber, a winder at the electric works, was injured this morning by a heavy coil former dropping upon his foot and bruising the member. He will be unable to work for a few days.

A lull in freight traffic affords opportunity for leave of absence from the road service and a number of Nickel Plate employes have taken advantage of it. Some are hunting, others visiting in neighboring towns and some are looking after some private business. On the absentee list today are Engineers J. E. Lindsey, George Dunann, Daniel Grubb, James Quinn and John Cook and Firemen Herb Minser and C. Jerome.

After a brief lay off Brakeman R. Ewing has resumed work on the Nickel Plate.

L. B. Tibbets, W. C. Rapa and Henry Beckness, Pittsburg shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Fireman Geary Weissell, who was sick a few days, resumed work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

Master Mechanic G. S. McKee is making a trip over the Buffalo division of the Wabash system.

Charles Laughlin, who had been sick, resumed his place in the Pittsburg boiler shop this morning.

Supt. J. B. McKim is in Pittsburg to attend a meeting of the time-table committee of the Pennsylvania company.

Nickel Plate Fireman R. M. Evans has taken a week's leave of absence from his engine on account of the sickness of his wife.

F. Hibinger yesterday became a brakeman on the Nickel Plate road. He is a brother of John Hibinger, a well-known conductor on that road.

Nickel Plate passenger train No. 3 was over two hours late in reaching the city last evening. Heavy train and a strong wind were factors in the delay.

Owing to the reduced rates it is reported that travel in the northwest is extraordinarily heavy, with indications of an increase in the near future.

The Chicago and Eastern Illinois is asking for bids on from 500 to 1,000 coal cars, or 2,000 to 5,000 box cars, and on twenty passenger coaches.

The St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company has placed a $2,500,000 contract for the improvement of the company's roadbed from Kansas City south through Missouri, Oklahoma and the Indian territory into Texas.

John Moring, the oiler, resumed work at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning, after an absence of over a week. He was quarantined on account of the sickness with scarlet fever of his little son. The lad is well, or nearly so.

Charles Rodenbeck resumed his place in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop this morning after an absence of a week. He was injured in the side by being struck by a big iron hook with which he was endeavoring to pull a piece of steel from the furnace.

J. H. Bending, machinist at the Bass works, yesterday sent his household effects and family to his recently purchased farm near Connersville, Ind. Mr. Bending will retain his position at the shops, possibly a year or two, and his son-in-law will have charge of the farm.

J. W. Mashbaum, C. W. Lee, H. H. Hoppe and L. A. Bixler, car builders at the east shops, and H. C. G. Meyers, car repairer at Adams station, are off duty, all on account of sickness, except Mr. Mashbaum and Mr. Bixler, who were victims of accidents.

The conference of the master mechanics and road foremen of engines of the northwestern system of the Pennsylvania closed last night and the visiting members have departed for their homes. The conference continued two days and was a most interesting and instructive affair.

All the roads in Central Traffic association territory will sell round-trip tickets at one and one-third fare on November 28 and 29, good to return November 30, between stations on their lines not to exceed a distance of 150 miles from starting point and also to many points on connecting lines within that distance.

The Chicago and Rock Island has decided to operate for itself the eating houses on its lines west of the Missouri river in order to give better satisfaction. The eating houses of the company will be refurnished and refitted and placed under direct supervision of Frank Stewart, superintendent of the dining car service of the company.

There is much speculation in local transportation circles over the incorporation of the Chicago and Toledo Railroad company. Indiana and Michigan capitalists are said to be the incorporators, and the line is planned to be built from the Indiana and Chicago boundary line to Toledo, Ohio. It is believed to be a revival of an old project to connect these two cities with another road.

Kansas City jobbers in boots, shoes, hats, caps, notions and millinery again are making a hard fight against the proposed change in western classification which will require that all boxes containing such goods be wired. The roads have attempted to require the strapping of these boxes before, contending that their losses by claims made for goods are so large that some relief is imperative.

In recognition of Andrew Carnegie's gift of £10,000 for a new building for the Stevens Institute of Technology, in Hoboken, N. J., it has been decided to present Mr. Carnegie with a section of an original thirty-six pounds T-rail from the Camden and Amboy railroad inclosed in a suitable receptacle. The rails were rolled in the Dowless works in 1831, and were the first T-rails made or laid.

REDUCE MISSIONARY FUND

M. E. COMMITTEE CUTS THE FOREIGN ALLOWANCE.

Decide on Reduction of $25,000 to be Distributed Over Home and Foreign Fields.

New York, Nov. 15.—In the morning session of the general missionary committee of the Methodist Episcopal churches the consideration of the proposed reduction of $25,000 in the money for the foreign missionary field was taken up. It was decided to make this reduction so as to distribute it over the entire appropriation for home and foreign fields, which is about $1,200,000. Of this latter sum the foreign field gets 57 per cent, or about $614,607; the balance, or about $463,656, goes to the home field. There are five districts in the foreign field, namely, Europe, South America and Mexico, Southern Asia, Eastern Asia and Africa. The committee appointed committees of five to take up each district and the question of apportioning the allowance for such territory. During the discussion Bishop Cranston, who recently returned from Manila, spoke on the proposition of including the Philippine archipelago in the Eastern Asia district.

POLICE CORRECT THE DRAMA.

St. Petersburg, Friday, Nov. 2.—It is reported that the police of Kieff have taken the theatres of that city in hand. They have not found it necessary to measure the length of the skirts of the members of the ballet. The evils which they desire to correct, and no doubt have already satisfactorily corrected, are of another character. There was some complaint that the pauses between the acts were too long, and the police decided that these waits must not last over fifteen minutes. The police also discovered that certain actors were being applauded far beyond their real merits. They, therefore, decided that in the future no actor may be applauded more than three times during the same performance.

Piano Confidence.

You may think this a peculiar expression. It may be, but did you ever stop to think that confidence in a piano, its maker and dealer is absolutely essential? You feel safe when buying a piano of the old reliable makes, pianos that have proven what they are, and not what the newer makers can only claim for theirs. The genuine article is always better than the imitation. It will pay you to call at Jacobs' Music Store, where you will find a line of pianos and organs of the highest order. He carries the Weber, Chickering, Krunich & Bach, Vose & Sons, Story & Clark, Raymond, Regent and other pianos, the Estey, United States and Chicago Cottage organs. An especially fine stock of the above-named makes, in fancy woods and latest design of cases have just been received, and no intending purchaser should fail to see them. Remember, too, that Mr. Jacobs sells on easy payments and at the lowest possible prices.
